~ PSALM 23

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Thursday, November 26 is Thanksgiving Day, and I wish all of you a safe and happy holiday weekend. We will have our 9 a.m. Mass as usual on Thanksgiving morning. More people may be staying closer to home this Thanksgiving, and all are invited to attend our 9 a.m. Mass in person or watch it via livestream on facebook.com/HolyNameBrooklyn.

In the spirit of Thanksgiving, please remember that this weekend (Nov. 21 / 22), we will be collecting for the U. S. Catholic Conference of Bishops' Campaign for Human Development, which funds projects addressing the root causes of poverty in communities throughout the United States.

For many years, a wonderful group of lay volunteers have organized and served Thanksgiving Dinner in Shepherds Hall. They will continue that tradition this year, with modifications to comply with COVID-19 protocols. Starting at 11 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day, the volunteers will distribute prepackaged Thanksgiving dinners from the main doorway of Shepherds Hall, between the Church and the school. Unfortunately, no one can enter the Hall and no food can be consumed on the Parish campus. Volunteers will be outside the Hall directing those who come to pick up a dinner. They will give out one meal per person until 2 p.m. or until all packages have been distributed, whichever comes first. Because of COVID-19 we cannot accept donations of perishable food (i.e. pies, stuffing, side dishes) as we have in the past. We can, however, gratefully accept monetary donations to help defray the cost of the meals.

This Sunday is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. It is the last Sunday of the liturgical year. The Gospel is St. Matthew's account of the Final Judgment, describing how Jesus will separate those who will go forward to eternal life from those who will go to eternal punishment like "a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." The Gospel reminds us that where we will spend eternity will be determined largely by how we cared for the least among us, with – in the words of The Confiteor – what we "have done" and (perhaps more importantly) what we "have failed to do" weighing heavily in the determination. This is good food for thought and prayer as we move into Advent.

SCRIPTURE INSIGHTS

Please consider the following commentary on this Sunday's readings:
(Proverbs 31:10-13; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6; Matthew 25:14-30)

"Today's Old Testament passages present God's people as sheep. Matthew's parable continues this metaphor but contrasts them with goats. The parable's setting is similar to the one in 1 Corinthians 15. There, Paul assures the Corinthians of the resurrection and that, just as God raised Jesus, God through Christ will raise us from the dead and give Christ a place of supremacy.

Although the sheep are accepted and the goats rejected before the supreme Christ in Matthew's parable, they share two things in common. First, both call Jesus 'Lord.' Matthew's Jesus has made it clear that "not everyone who says ... 'Lord, Lord' will enter the kingdom of heaven but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven" (Matthew 7:21). Our actions are more important than our words, and God desires that our actions are expressions of mercy for the weak and vulnerable. In fact, that is how today's Old Testament passages describe God's attitude and actions toward us as our shepherd: God cares for us with goodness and mercy, even or especially when we are lost, astray, or injured.

Second, both the sheep and the goats express that they have never seen Jesus in a needy condition. Neither group knows or understands the reasons or implications of their actions, but one chose to act with mercy while the other chose to ignore the needs of people they encountered. The point here is not that ignorance is bliss, as Matthew's Jesus spends a lot of time teaching (such as the Sermon on the Mount in chapters 5-7), and he tells people to learn and practice the teachings of the religious leaders (Matthew 23:2-3). Rather, the significance is that while our understandings can be limited, the most important thing is how we treat 'these least ones' (Matthew 25:40, 45)."
