A Note from Father Larry

First, I certainly want to recognize and thank Rogelio Bravo, the members of the Guadalupe Committee, and all of the other people who worked so hard to make last Saturday's parish observance of the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe such a success. We were privileged to have Bishop James Massa return to celebrate the Mass and were all very impressed with how well he delivered his Homily in Spanish. It was a long (starting at 4:30 AM!) but wonderful day of devotion, music, food and joy.

Primero, ciertamente quiero reconocer y agradecer a Rogelio Bravo, los miembros del Comité Guadalupano y todas las demás personas que trabajaron tanto para que la celebración parroquial de la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe fuera un éxito. Tuvimos el privilegio de que el Obispo James Massa regresara para celebrar la Misa y todos estábamos muy impresionados con lo bien que pronuncío su Homilía en español. Fue un día largo (empezando a las 4:30 AM) pero maravilloso de devoción, música, comida y alegría.

Our Advent Reconciliation Monday (December 16th) went very well with many people taking advantage of that opportunity to gain the graces of the Sacrament of Penance to "better prepare the way for the Lord". Please remember that we have Confessions from 4-5 p.m. on Saturday, December 21st and from 1:30-2:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve, December 24th. Also remember that we will be having a mini concert of the music of Advent from 4:45 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the church on Saturday, December 21st.

As part of the Red Ribbon Campaign that continues until through Epiphany, please remember to pray for the Catholics and other Christians throughout the world (and especially in the Middle East) who are being persecuted for their faith.

The Gospel for Christmas and the days immediately following Christmas offer several powerful messages. Focusing especially on Christmas and the Feast of the Holy Family, we're reminded of the love which Mary and Joseph had for the child Jesus and for the love that God (to include Jesus, the Son of God who is God and who became man for our salvation) has for all families. Of course God certainly loves single people (like myself!) and includes us single folks fully in the Good News of the Gospels. Merry Christmas, many thanks (especially for your amazing generosity), and all of God's blessings to everyone in the parish; but I want to conclude this Christmas "note" with a special word of thanks to the families of the parish. Thank you for the sacrifices you make for your loved ones. Thank you for your generosity and for staying connected with the church, its teachings and the sacraments. Merry Christmas to all and may God bless each of you and all of your loved ones now and forever.

Scripture Insights

Please consider the following commentary on this Sunday's Readings:
Reading I: Isaiah 7:10-14;
Reading II: Romans 1:1-7; Gospel: Matthew 1:18-24.

"On this final Sunday before Christmas, the readings highlight the foundation of our faith in Jesus' identity and, by extension, our identity as his followers. Matthew opened his Gospel, in imitation of the Old Testament, with a genealogy of Jesus Christ that identifies him as a descendant of Abraham through the lineage of David. Today's reading gives Matthew's account of Jesus' birth presented from Joseph's perspective.

Joseph's dilemma regarding Mary's pregnancy is resolved when in a dream an angel reveals that the child is conceived "through the Holy Spirit." The child to be born is the Son of God and the Son of Mary. This is Jesus' identity: fully divine and fully human. Matthew supports this by quoting from Isaiah's prophecy: 'Behold the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel.'

This is the same Gospel message that St. Paul hands on so clearly in the beginning of his Letter to the Romans (today's Second Reading). The message of the Good News of our salvation centers on the person of Jesus: fully human, as a descendant of David and foretold by the prophets, and fully divine, as the Son of God and demonstrated by the Resurrection.

Jesus' identity has significant implications for us. We are called to 'belong to Jesus Christ' by being transformed in holiness through the grace and peace that comes through Jesus' Resurrection. This is our faith. This is our inheritance: 'We belong to Jesus Christ' as God's beloved children called to be saints. As such, like St. Paul, we are called to witness to this message by our lives."
