COLLECTION RESULTS
July 14, 2019

TOTAL TO PARISH: $6,590.00
(Includes: $3,935.00 Regular First Collection; $1,060.00 Faith Direct; R&R $1,375.00; Faith Direct R&R $220.00)

Your generosity and constant support of Holy Name is very much appreciated.

Summertime Giving with Faith Direct

As you are probably aware, church attendance during the summer months tends to drop off as vacations and weekend sporting events often conflict. Many families attend Mass near where their weekend activities take them. The services we provide within the parish and for the larger community continue year around, as do their associated expenses. Your consistent financial support of our parish is vital to achieving our stewardship mission.

The easiest way to be sure that your gift of treasure reaches us, even when you can't be here, is through enrollment in our electronic offertory program. If you have not yet enrolled I encourage you do so this month. Once you have enrolled, you can relax knowing that Holy Name will receive your gifts throughout the summer.

You can enroll three ways – forms are available in the back of the church, you can visit Faith Direct's secure web site at www.faithdirect.net to enroll online, or you can call a customer service representative at Faith Direct at (866) 507-8757. Our parish code is NY349. As always, know that your generosity is truly a gift from God.

Registration for Religious Education Classes for September 2019

Registration for the 2019-2020 Religious Education Program is continuing. If your child is in grades 1-8 and they are attending a public or a non-Catholic private school they should be attending religious education classes to help them grow in their faith and to prepare them to receive their sacraments.

Registration forms are available in the back of Church, on the Holy Name website or by contacting Kathryn Sisto, Coordinator of Religious Education at 718-768-7629 or hnjreligioused@gmail.com.

Re-registration has also begun for our current students. To register your child or if you have any questions regarding our Religious Education Program please contact Kathryn Sisto at 718-768-7629.

A Note from Fr. Larry

Perhaps the most important parish news is that (Praise God!) the Church Air Conditioning has been fixed and is working properly! Our apologies again for reduced air conditioning at our Masses this past weekend and thank you for your understanding.

Please see the flyer in this week's bulletin about Fr. John Cush's three part series (Monday evenings July 22nd, July 29th, August 5th at 7 p.m. in the air-conditioned Rectory Basement) on "The Moral Theology of the Twilight Zone". Each session will include a viewing of an episode of the popular 1960's TV show "The Twilight Zone" followed by a presentation/discussion lead by Fr. Cush on the interesting moral questions and lessons conveyed in each episode. Fr. Cush's impressive biography is included in the flyer. He was raised in this parish and (as many HNJ parishioners can attest to) is an excellent presenter. The sessions should be both entertaining and informative, and we hope to see many of you there.

Scripture Commentary

Please consider the following Commentary on this Sunday's Readings (Genesis 18:1-10a, Colossians 1:24-28, Luke 10:38-42):

"Working and Wanting

Anxious and upset about many things (Lk 10:41)

The story of Mary and Martha has always irritated me a bit. You have these two sisters. One of them, Martha, takes the opportunity to welcome Jesus into their home. The other, Mary, as soon as Jesus comes in, sits down at his feet and seems to hang on his every word.

So what is Martha to do? Sit down too, and let the stew boil over? If she also rests at Jesus' feet, who is going to serve? How will they eat? What will they have? Nothing will get done.

Then Jesus gets on her case, telling her that she frets and bothers about many things and that Mary (of all people) has chosen the better part by just lolling there doing nothing.

I would like to have been a mouse in that house to hear what Martha might have answered. 'OK, you two make the dinner, set out the meal, and clean up the place. I'm tired of working and being unappreciated.'

Perhaps she would even remind them who had invited Jesus in the first place. At least that is what I would have said, or maybe muttered into the fire that no one else bothered to stoke.

Of course, my perfect riposte reveals why Jesus saw fit to chide the Martha in me. He spots the resentment that rises when I think others are not doing their share — especially when I am so dutifully doing mine.

My urgent solicitude reveals something quite other than generosity. So does my reminder that I, after all, am why this little get-together is even happening. Poor me, I brood with perfect logic: If that is the way he wants it, let him have it. "You do the work, if you think it is so paltry."

I finally squeeze into the teeny tight hollow of my ego.

Ah, but there are those other days, those lovely times of labor when I'm not looking over my shoulder at how well I am doing and how little others seem to accomplish.

Like Abraham's Sarah with her warm bread, choice meats, and fresh milk, I can go about my tasks knowing that they, too, are the presence of God. My work is no longer something exacted of me, toil grudgingly given. Rather, it flows freely, a display of how good it is to be alive, to be here, to be now.

The Martha in my mind is not distracted on those good days. Nor do I feel any need to complain to God that others around are not following my script. Best of all, I do not complain that I am doing it all by myself.

Those days are rare. But when they arrive I realize that my annoyance with the story of Mary and Martha is not about the value of work, but about the way we work. Martha, like me, need not stop the labor. We just need to stop the fuss. There is Martha, that saint, in all of us. Just as there is Mary a saint as well. In fact, there is probably a lot of Mary in Martha and a lot of Martha in Mary. The challenge is in letting them get along. And when we sit down before the feet of God, let not our Martha fail to rejoice in the moment. And when we go about preparing the meals of life, let us labor, not with comparisons or resentment, but with the joy of having seized an opportune moment." (Fr. John Kavanaugh, SJ, The Word Engaged, St. Louis U. Sunday Website, July 21, 2019)

ROOM REQUESTS 2019-2020

All Parish organizations are asked to submit requests for meeting space no later than Monday, August 5th. Please send all requests, in writing, to Louise in the Rectory. Be sure to include your name and a phone number where you can be reached in case there's a conflict.

Requests will be honored on a first come, first served basis. They will be numbered and entered into the book in the order in which we receive them. This reminder is only for parish organizations. Thank you for your cooperation.

Food Pantry

The Food Pantry will distribute food from the rectory basement between 2 and 3 pm on July 27 and August 10 & 24. At this time pasta, canned fruit, and cereal are needed. Thank you for supporting Holy Name's community food pantry for the past 32 years.

MISSIONARY PRIEST VISITS HOLY NAME THIS WEEKEND

Fr. Bienvenu Tsanga, from the Diocese of Obala in Cameroon, will be preaching at all of our Masses this weekend as part of the Missionary Summer Appeal Program coordinated by the Brooklyn Diocese's Office for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith.

Everything in this weekend's Second Collection will be forwarded to the Diocese of Obala through the Propagation of the Faith.

The Twilight Zone

Mondays: 7 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
7/22, 7/29, and 8/5
Holy Name Rectory Basement
245 Prospect Park West

Fr. John Cush, STD will present episodes from the classic television series:

"The Old Man in the Cave"
"The Howling Man"
"The Hunt"
"The Obsolete Man"

After each episode, Fr. Cush will provide a theological commentary, exploring issues such as the concept of God, the presence of evil, justice, and natural law.

All are welcome! Light refreshments will be served

Fr. John Cush is a native son of Holy Name. He is a priest of the Diocese of Brooklyn who serves as the academic dean at the Pontifical North American College, Vatican City-State and as a professor of Church History and Theology at both the Pontifical Gregorian University and the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross (Santa Croce) in Rome, Italy.

Fr. Cush holds a Doctorate in Sacred Theology from Rome's Pontifical Gregorian University and is a regular columnist for T*he National Catholic Register*, Homiletics and Pastoral Review, The Evangelist, and The Tablet. His first book, The Renewable Mind, is forthcoming from Our Sunday Visitor Press in 2020.

The Twilight Zone was created and presented by Rod Serling, who was also the show's host and narrator. The series ran on CBS television from 1959 to 1964.

Basic Judeo-Christian morality is apparent throughout the series. Each stand-alone episode, whose characters often find themselves dealing with surreal or unusual events, offers a moral.
