MEMORIAL MASS FOR M^{c}FADDEN BROTHERS AMERICAN LEGION POST #1080

Our 12 Noon Mass this Sunday, June 30, 2019, will be both a regularly-scheduled Mass for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time and a Mass at which we will be remembering and praying in a special way for the deceased members of M^{c}Fadden Brothers American Legion Post #1080 and all those members of the Armed Forces who have given their lives in defense of our country. The Post is named after the M^{c}Fadden Brothers who came from this area and who died in World War Two. The Post (which this year is celebrating its 74th Anniversary) has been an important part of the Windsor Terrace/Holy Name Community. Members of the Post will be present at the Mass and we hope as many of you as possible can join us.

A Note from Father Larry

In lieu of my note in last week's bulletin we listed the names of the fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, uncles and other men helping in the role of father whom we have been praying for at our Masses In June. This week I'll mention many of the important and positive activities that have recently taken place in and around Holy Name of Jesus Parish as we race toward the end of June.

Our 9 AM Mass on Friday morning, June 14th, was the Graduation Mass for the Eighth Grade Graduates from our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Academy. Their Graduation Ceremony was later that evening in HNJ Church. The Church was packed for both the Mass and the Graduation Ceremony. The members of the Class of 2019 (whose names we proudly listed in last week's bulletin) distinguished themselves in their academic work and in their service to others. During the mornings of June 14th, 16th, 17th and 18th, the 'Step-Up" Ceremonies for the SJWCA PreK-3, Pre-K4, and Kindergarten classes took place in Shepherds Hall which was filled for each event. Those graduation activities gave me many opportunities not only to congratulate the graduates (including the very young "graduates" of the PreK and Kindergarten programs), but also to congratulate and thank their teachers, school staff, parents, grandparents and other loved ones for all of the love and sacrifice that have gone into giving these children a quality education in a Catholic school.

During June there were also events in the parish recognizing Cub Scouts and Girls Scouts moving up to higher levels in the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and recognizing older Girls Scouts (whose names appeared in last week's bulletin) who have earned the prestigious Girl Scout Gold Award. In addition to recognizing the Scouts for their accomplishments, these events gave me the opportunity to recognize and thank our adult Scout leaders for the hundreds of hours of volunteer time that they dedicate each year to keep Holy Name's Cub Scout, Girl Scout and Boy Scout programs alive and well.

June was also a month when our young people's performance talents were showcased. During the third week in June Park Slope Performing Arts (PSPA) used Shepherds Hall to put on performances of the Broadway show Newsies (with a junior-high and high-school age cast and crew from PSPA's Youth Company Theatre) and A Star is Born in Brooklyn (featuring PSPA dancers and singers from preK through high school). On Saturday, the Buckley School of Irish Dance (which uses Shepherds Hall for classes and practices) held its end-of-year show in the former Bishop Ford High School's Auditorium. The young performers in the PSPA and Buckley School shows (many of whom come from Holy Name and/or SJWCA) were all great. Shepherds Hall and the Bishop Ford Auditorium were filled with justifiably proud and enthusiastic family and loved ones. Congratulations to all involved!

Concerning a more difficult subject, The U.S. Catholic hierarchy continues to have serious concerns about the U.S Government's immigration enforcement policies. Two fundamental principles of Catholic Social Teaching on Immigration are (1) that a nation has a right to regulate its borders and to control immigration, but that (2) a country must regulate its borders with justice and mercy. A detailed examination of the complexities of regulating our borders with both justice and mercy is far beyond the scope of this note, but the following quote from a June 22nd statement by the Most Reverend Joe S. Vasquez, Bishop of Austin and Chair of the USCCB Committee on Migration, provides some important insight into the U.S. Catholic hierarchy's position: "We recognize the right of nations to control their borders in a just and proportionate manner. However, broad enforcement actions instigate panic in our communities and will not serve as an effective deterrent to irregular migration. Instead, we should focus on the root causes in Central America that have compelled so many to leave their homes in search of safety and reform our immigration system with a view toward justice and the common good. We stand ready to work with the Administration and Congress to achieve those objectives. During this unsettling time, we offer our prayers and support to our brothers and sisters, regardless of their immigration status, and recognizing their inherent dignity as children of God."

SCRIPTURE INSIGHTS

Please consider the following commentary of this Sunday's Readings (1 King 19:16b, 19-21; Galatians 5:1, 13-18; Luke 9:51-62):

"In our Sunday readings from Luke's Gospel account, Jesus has been preaching in Galilee. Now he turns his attention to Jerusalem, 'When the days for Jesus being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.' His decision will result in his death, yet he embraces this outcome.

Difficult challenges also face Jesus' potential followers. Three would-be followers ask to join Jesus. Before setting out, each has a request. One would like to return home to bury a father and another to bid farewell to family. Nothing could be more human than these requests, but Jesus rejects them. This shocks us until we realize that Jesus is exaggerating to get across his point. Jesus never opposes upholding family ties. After all, 'Honor your father and mother' is one of the Ten Commandments. Jesus had also criticized the Pharisees for their refusal to support their elderly parents by 'dedicating money to God' (Matthew 15:4-5).

Jesus highlights the foundational requirement for following him. Commitment to Jesus must be total. Even family bonds cannot take precedence over one's bond with God.

The same was true in Old Testament times. The people of Israel constantly turned away from following God wholeheartedly by worshipping other gods. In the First Reading, Elisha offered a similar excuse for delaying following Elijah.

Cont'd…

Pope Francis expresses well the wholehearted demand of our relationship with Christ: 'Being Christian is not just obeying orders but means being in Christ, thinking like him, acting like him, loving like him; it means letting him take possession of our life and change it, transform it'
(General Audience, Wednesday, April 10, 2017).

How might Pope Francis' statement on being a Christian change your views on your relationship with Christ?

What does Jesus' response to the three would-be followers indicate about how you should follow Christ?

Have you ever experienced your bonds with your family being in conflict with your relationship with Christ?"
(Liturgical Training Publications, At Home with the Word 2019, p.103)

FOOD PANTRY

The Food Pantry will distribute food from the rectory basement between 2 and 3 pm on July 13 & 27. At this time pasta, canned fruit, and cereal are needed. Thank you for your ongoing support.

Registration for Religious Education Classes for September 2019

Registration for the 2019-2020 Religious Education Program has begun. If your child is in grades 1-8 and they are attending a public or a non-Catholic private school they should be attending religious education classes to help them grow in their faith and to prepare them to receive their sacraments. Registration forms are available in the back of Church, on the Holy Name website or by contacting Kathryn Sisto, Coordinator of Religious Education at hnjreligioused@gmail.com or 718-768-7629. Re-registration has also begun for our current students.

Volunteers Needed

The Religious Education Program is looking for additional volunteers to help teach the young members of our parish. If you are over the age of 18, like to work with children and would like to help them grow in their faith, please consider helping out in our program. If you are a high school student that enjoys working with children consider becoming a classroom assistant. If you are interested please contact Kathryn Sisto, Coordinator of Religious Education at 718-768-7629 or hnjreligiouseducation@gmail.com.
