A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Our 10:30AM Mass last Sunday included the "Rite of Sending Forth" in which we in the faith community of Holy Name Parish "sent forth" three participants in our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) to two important liturgies. Nohemi Contreras Robles and George Tolentino were "sent forth" to the "Rite of Election: Call to Continuing Conversion" held in St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Flatlands where they joined about several hundred other "Candidates" preparing to receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil in April. Elise Guzman was "sent forth" to the "Rite of Election for Catechumens" at the former Bishop Ford High School where she joined about 460 other "Catechumens" preparing to receive Baptism, Confirmation and First Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil. Auxiliary Guy Sanaricq presided at the "Rite of Elections for Catechumens." We congratulate and continue to pray for Nohemi, George and Elise as well as for several other participants in our RCIA program preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday in June. As always, we thank Maryellen Keogh for her hard work as coordinator of our RCIA program.

Please see the information elsewhere in this bulletin about Stations of the Cross and about our Lenten Holy Hour at 7:0pm on Monday, March 25th presided over by Fr. Charles Keeney.

Please consider the following commentary on this week's Readings (Reading I: Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18; Reading II: Philippians 3:17-4:1 or 3:20-4:1; Gospel: Luke 9:28b-36):

"Seeing Things

'You're seeing things!' Any lifelong speaker of American English will hear in that phrase a judgment that the person addressed is out of touch, imagining what is not really there. But here I want to give that phrase a little spin to help us reflect that faith is, in a positive way, always a matter of seeing things in a manner that is not universally shared. Each of this Sunday's readings illustrates that fact.

Abram, a senior citizen and husband of a woman well past menopause, is told to look up at the stars and believe that, sterility notwithstanding, he and Sarah shall have descendants as numerous as those stars. Abram puts his faith in the Lord, who credits it to him as an act of righteousness. To confirm this promise, the Lord has Abram lay out some split animal carcasses to set up for a covenant ritual in which the two covenanting parties walk between the pieces as a sign of their commitment.

The meaning of the ritual: if I fail in this agreement, may I suffer the fate of these animals. Then Abram sees a smoking brazier and a flaming torch pass between the pieces—symbolizing, in an un-usual gesture of divine condescension, God's commitment to the promise. Because he allows himself to see the future God's way, with fertility coming out of sterility, God lets him really see things—a vision confirming the divine promise.

When Paul writes to his beloved Christian community in the Roman colony of Philippi, he calls them more deeply into the Christian way of seeing things. They have a mindset, a worldview, different from the culture around them. For those other folks, 'their God is their stomach,' 'Their minds are occupied with earthly things,' 'But our citizenship is in heaven,' he tells them, touching on a reality that is very much a part of their daily experience. For they are citizens of a Roman colonia. As Christians, however, they are a colony of heaven, members of a homeland whose shores they have not touched, yet whose citizens they already are. By embracing the risen Lord in faith, they can look forward to becoming transformed and sharing in his risen state. They envision a future that frees them even now.

In the Gospel reading, Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up a mountain to pray. There they experience a vision even more dramatic than that given to Abram. Jesus' face and clothing are transformed into an apocalyptic brilliance. Moses and Elijah join Jesus 'in glory' and speak with him. Peter wants somehow to 'freeze' the scenario by setting up three tents. Then a cloud overshadows them all. Moses and Elijah fade; the three see 'only Jesus.' Then the same divine voice that spoke at the baptism of Jesus announces, 'This is my chosen Son; listen to him.'

What Peter, James, and John are seeing they don't fully grasp until their understanding is illuminated by the light of Easter. We have the advantage of Luke's post-Easter hindsight as we read his account. Luke alone stresses that the vision occurs while Jesus and the privileged three are praying. And Luke alone notes that the subject of Moses' and Elijah's conversation with Jesus is 'the exodus he is to fulfill in Jerusalem.' The mention of that key word ['exodus'] is a powerful shorthand interpretation of Jesus' coming death and resurrection: what looks to be a crushing disaster will turn out to be the occasion of a liberation journey of which the first exodus is a foreshadowing. For the vision's Jewish viewers—Peter, James, and John—the presence of Moses and Elijah necessarily recalls the Law and the Prophets. For Moses is the mediator of the Sinai covenant and the leader of the Exodus, and Elijah is the prophet par excellence and the hoped-for precursor of the messianic age. Thus these figures stand for the essence of God's communication with Israel. And so, when Moses and Elijah fade and Jesus alone remains visible and the divine voice says, 'This is my chosen Son; listen to him,' the message is clear: Jesus, in his Easter 'Exodus,' is the fullness of God's word. He fulfills the Law and the Prophets.

It is no accident that the evangelists link this vision with the teaching on discipleship immediately preceding it. Jesus had been teaching, 'Whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it' (Lk 9:24). The vision of the Transfiguration hints how such a paradox can be true. This Gospel vision reminds us that we too are meant to be 'seeing things' as we move through our Lenten journey." (Fr. Dennis Hamm, SJ, Let the Scriptures Speak, St. Louis U. Sunday Website, March 17, 2019.)

SACRAMENTS TO THE HOMEBOUND

Lent is an especially good time to bring the Sacrament of the Eucharist to the homebound. If you have a homebound relative, neighbor, or friend in the parish who you think might wish to receive Communion at home, please let that person know that we are very interested in bringing Communion to them (and also of making the Sacraments of Penance and the Anointing of the Sick available to them at home if they wish). All it takes to begin the process is a request through the parish office. Please assure those interested that all visits would be at definite times and days arranged in advance.

PRO-LIFE QUOTE

Evangelist Franklin Graham responded to a politician who claimed an abortion is health care just like a tonsillectomy: "Far too many people who want to be governors, legislators, professors, and teachers In this nation have fallen prey to a culture of death philosophy. They are denyng the worth of millions of children made in the image of God."

Save the Date

Holy Name Foundation Annual Dinner Dance on Friday evening, May 31st, 2019 at Gargiulo's Restaurant More details to follow for this event!

Como miembro de la Diócesis de Brooklyn, usted es parte de la familia de Católicos quienes practican la Fe y viven vida de corresponsabilidad a través de la Diócesis de Brooklyn y Queens.

A través de la Campaña usted puede ayudar a mantener los programas vitales y ministerios que sirven a Jesús, al mostrar su amor a los hermanos y hermanas en el Señor y sirviendo como enlace de información.

¿Qué apoya las contribuciones dada a la Campaña Anual Católica?

A: Simplemente, a nuestra GENTE. Nuestro mayor reto como católicos es el compartir el amor de Dios con los demás. Muchos de nuestros hermanos y hermanas tienen muchas necesidades y nosotros somos bendecidos cuando compartimos nuestros dones en fe a través de actos de caridad.

La Campaña Católica Anual está en el centro de nuestros esfuerzos para llevar el amor de Jesús a los necesitados. Al hacer tu compromiso hace posible que las obras transciendan más allá de cualquier parroquia; alcanzando a los necesitados a través de los programas de ministerio social; eleva el esfuerzo de entrenar candidatos al sacerdocio y vida religiosa; apoya la Formación en la Fe; hace que hayan capellanes disponibles en hospitales, cárceles y escuelas; y asegura que se siga asistiendo a los nuevos miembros de nuestra comunidad de inmigrantes.

¿Cómo están repartidos los fondos contribuidos – Hay una lista?

A: Si, hay una lista explica como los fondos están distribuidos: Apoyo Vocacional, $2,100,000; Formación de Fe, $2,000,000; Catholic Charities, $1,100,000; Servicios Católicos de Migración, $700,000; Cuidado de Sacerdotes Retirados, $600,000; Capellanías, $500,000; Asistencia Parroquial, $ 500,000; Asistencia de becas, $500,000

¿Cómo se beneficia la Parroquia con este esfuerzo?

A: Su Parroquia se beneficia – Los ministerios Diocesano se benefician – y todos viviendo en Brooklyn & Queens se benefician. Su bondad da vida a las palabras de Cristo en los tan maravilloso ministerios, programas y servicios proporcionado a través de Brooklyn y Queens – incluyendo esos en sus parroquias. Como ejemplo, el futuro de todas las parroquias depende que haya los sacerdotes necesarios para poder ministrar. La Campaña Católica hace su trabajo de apoyar vocaciones en maneras que ninguna parroquia sola podría lograr y así asegurá que hayan sacerdotes que celebren Misas en todas las parroquias. En adición a este ejemplo, la parroquia también recibirá todos los fondos que hayan sido recaudados después de lograr su meta fijada para ser utilizado en iniciativas locales. En esencia la Campaña Católica Anual permite que las parroquias utilicen fondos para otras iniciativas, pero, claro su apoyo semanal a su parroquial es crucial y te animamos a continuar compartiendo tu generosidad con tu parroquia local, pero también recuerda que la iglesia se extienda más allá de las paredes de tu parroquia local.

¿Yo solamente puedo dar una donación pequeña - mi donación no es importante, entonces para que donar?

A: Estamos pidiendo a la gente de donar según sus capacidades- todas las donaciones son importantes. El Señor ha compartido muchos dones con cada uno de nosotros. Como Cristianos estamos llamados a compartir todas las bendiciones que El nos ha dado con los demás. Su aportación es un verdadero sacrificio personal – sacrificio que nosotros agradecemos, reflexione entonces en su decisión al compartir su donación. No importa si una donación de una sola vez de $50 o una promesa por el año de $2,500. cada donación hace posible que nuestras parroquias cumplan su responsabilidad a la comunidad Católica más extensa en Brooklyn y Queens. Cada donación hace una diferencia.
La Diócesis de Brooklyn está compuesta de personas como usted unidas en el amor de Cristo en nuestra 187 Parroquias. Una parte de ser un Católico responsable es preocuparse por las necesidades de sus hermanos, así como San Pablo decía: “Cuando un miembro sufre, todos sufrimos. Cuando uno se regocija, todos nos regocijamos.” Para esto es la Campaña Anual Católica.

Favor de ser lo más generoso posible al participar en La Campaña Católica Anual. ¡Gracias!
