DIOCESE OF BROOKLYN

Please prayerfully consider making a gift to the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal. No gift is too small.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS AND LENTEN HOLY HOURS

During Lent we will be having Stations of the Cross in English after the 9:00am Mass on Friday mornings and in Spanish at 7:00pm on Friday evenings. At 7:00pm on Monday evening March 25th Fr. Charles Keeney will be presiding at a Lenten Holy Hour in which he will give a Reflection on "Peter's Confession of Faith: What It Meant to My Priesthood; What it could mean to your important Relationships and Especially to Your Marriage." At 7:00pm on Monday evening April 1st there will be Stations of the Cross in English.

Prayer, Discussion and Information Night regarding Clergy Sex Abuse

At 7:00pm on Thursday, April 4th, at the Brooklyn Diocesan Offices, 310 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, NY, Bishop DiMarzio will be hosting a Prayer, Discussion and Information Night regarding Clergy Sex Abuse. Clergy, Pastoral Leaders and Parishioners from Brooklyn Deaneries B3 and B4 (Deanery B4 includes Holy Name of Jesus Parish and several of our neighboring Parishes) are invited to attend. Bishop DiMarzio and other Diocesan officials will be there to answer any questions attendees may have concerning the clergy sex abuse crisis.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Our thanks to Auxiliary Bishop Octavio Cisneros for celebrating our Irish Parade Mass last Sunday morning. It was a beautiful liturgy. Congratulations to Parade Grand Marshall (Holy Name's own) Bernadette Buckley Kash and her two Aides from Holy Name Parish, Ann Dolan and Rita Donlon. Bernadette Kash is the Director of the Buckley School of Irish Dance and her students performed with distinction at the post-parade Dinner held in Shepherds Hall on Sunday afternoon. Congratulations and thanks also to the Parade Committee for their hard work over many months to prepare for this day.

As has been previously announced, we will have a Lenten Holy Hour in the Church this Monday evening (March 25th) at 7 PM. Fr. Charles Keeney will be presiding and will give a reflection on "St. Peter's Confession of Faith: What It Meant to My Priesthood; What It Could Mean to Your Important Relationships and Especially to Your Marriage." It promises to be a thought-provoking and grace-filled hour. Please join us.

Pledges have begun coming in for the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal, mainly from those faithful donors who have participated in past years. Thank you to all who have made their pledges. As I mentioned at last weekend's Masses, one concern is that so many participants in past Appeals have either moved from the parish or have passed away. That makes our pledges this year even more important to enable the 2019 Campaign to achieve its goal to meet critical Diocesan needs, and to help Holy Name Parish pay off our large remaining debts and other obligations with the over-goal contributions that are returned to the Parish. As always, God bless you for your generosity.

On a more spiritual note, repentance and confession are important components of a good Lent. Our Cycle C Gospel (Luke 13:1-9) for this Sunday focuses on repentance, including Jesus' warning: "But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish…!" Consider the following reflection:

"Who wants to repent? Who wants to change habits, make sacrifices, or chart a more challenging course? Repentance isn't the easy road. Perhaps that's why Jesus had to speak with such boldness in today's Gospel. Repent, or perish. Not what we like to hear. Not what we like to do. But we would be foolish not to listen. The entire Gospel message is certainly one of mercy and compassion. Jesus was the first to show forgiveness to sinners, and he always called others to do the same. He suffered and died so that we wouldn't have to suffer eternal death. But the fact remains that we can still choose to "perish," to stay rooted in our favorite sins and to cling tightly to the comfortable vices that stifle a virtuous life. But Jesus urges us to change so that we can enjoy the eternal benefits of his mercy. Lent is a time especially built for repentance. These forty days are a response to Christ's stern warning that we need to repent in order to save our souls. Let's not pretend to be exempt from the message. Lent is meant for all of us." Liturgical Publications Inc.

We have Confessions every Saturday from 4 to 5 PM, and by appointment arranged by calling the Rectory office. In addition, Monday, April 15th, will be Reconciliation Monday when Confessions will be heard in every Church in the Diocese of Brooklyn (including Holy Name of Jesus) and in the Archdiocese of New York from 3 PM to 9 PM. Please make a good Confession during Lent.

Also please consider the following commentary (prepared in 2016 by Kathleen Nolan, a Holy Name parishioner and longtime Catholic High School Religion teacher who passed away in July of 2017) on this week's Readings and Gospel:

"In the First Reading, we find a tender, compassionate God, grieving over the troubles of his people. 'I have witnessed the affliction of my people in Egypt and have heard their cry of complaint against their slave drivers, so I know well what they are suffering. Therefore, I have come down to rescue them.' God speaks these words to Moses from the midst of a burning bush that is not consumed by its own flames, a miraculous sign of Divine presence. He begins to instruct Moses about how to rescue God's people. God identifies himself as 'I Am Who I Am,' Yahweh, as Life itself, as the creator of all, as the essence and sustainer of all that lives, as both a transcendent God and one who is in the very fiber of our being. God told Moses he was standing on holy ground; it was a place of experiencing Yahweh. The name is so sacred to observant Jews that they will not write out the complete name or use it casually. Intervening still in our history as he did in the Israelites', God asks us to be caretakers of His creation and part of his sacred action in the world.

In Laudato Si, Pope Francis writes about our common home, the earth, 'holy ground'? 'The entire material universe speaks of God's love, His boundless affection for us, Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God…Everything is related, and we human beings are united as brothers and sisters on a wonderful pilgrimage, woven together by the love of God has for each of his creatures and which also unites us in fond affection with brother sun, sister moon, brother river and mother earth.' How can we respect and protect this earth more? Our God is with us each day showering us with 'kindness and compassion' as the 'Lord is kind and merciful,' as the Responsorial Psalm reminds us. Can we imitate this compassion in our daily lives?

The Second Reading refers to the need for deeper conversion (turning more toward God). Can we take some opportunities in our parish and at home this Lent? 'Whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall.' How can we strive at keeping our relationships with God and His people alive and healthy?

In today's Gospel, Jesus also speaks about the need to be repentant and nonjudgmental. He tells us not to be arrogant and think that we're better than others. We all have a constant need to turn to the one God and reject false gods of money, power and selfishness. Jesus teaches the parable of the fig tree which did not bear fruit for three years. The owner wanted to cut it down, but the gardener, who probably has more of an appreciation for the tree said, 'I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it…' It's a lesson in love and devotion, in caring and persistence. Do we give people more chances after they make mistakes? How does God use us as gardeners? The parable also describes the fate of those who do not repent. Even though God gives us everything we need for our journey toward salvation, we need to cultivate our spiritual lives. The 'fertilizer' is our charity, works of mercy, fasting, and prayer. We 'grumble' our way through life; we judge other and fail to live up to our commitment. Jesus is quite clear in his message: 'bear fruit or be cut down.' Lent is a season to turn away from our false idols, to call on our merciful and gracious God and to be good gardeners."
