A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

1 – 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal Update: I'll begin this note by making my "case" (and my personal request once again) for your support of the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal. For the last several weeks the Appeal has focused on those donors who have given in past years and would be making their 2019 pledges by mail. At all of the Masses for the weekend of April 6th and 7th we will be conducting the "in-pew" part of the Appeal. As its name suggests, the "in-pew" part of the Appeal necessarily requires time to distribute, explain, and collect the Appeal pledge envelopes. I will therefore use this note to present some points we may not have time to cover on April 6th and 7th.

As of March 18, 2019, 51 donors from Holy Name of Jesus Parish had pledged a total of $29,245 to the 2019 Appeal. Our diocesan-assigned 2019 goal is $46, 064. So we still have a way to go to meet our goal. More significantly, our final numbers for the 2018 Appeal were 255 donors who donated a total of $95,113, which was $51,243 over our 2018 goal. All of those $51,243 "over-goal" dollars came back to Holy Name parish and – as I have previously reported – have been used to reduce (pay-down) Holy Name Parish's large outstanding long-term obligations. Last year Fr. Patrick Burns did an exceptional job leading the 2018 Appeal in HNJ Parish, and the donors of Holy Name were marvelously generous. This year Fr. Patrick (May he rest in peace) is no longer with us. Thus far we are off to a bit of a slow start for the 2019 Appeal, yet I very much hope that (and ask your support so that) we can match last year's results both in meeting our diocesan goal and exceeding our diocesan-goal as well as we did last year.

Meeting our 2019 Diocesan Goal is of course our first priority. As most of you know, the Appeal helps fund Diocesan-wide programs (such as Catholic Charities; Hospital Chaplains, Faith Formation including Religious Education, Sacramental Preparation and other catechetical initiatives for children and adults; support for seminarians and elderly priests in need, Catholic schools, and the Diocesan Migration Office) that are beyond the means of individual parishes to support. By donating to the Appeal you are helping many people – and especially many poor people – in the Diocese in many ways.

Concerning the use of Appeal dollars donated "over-goal" and returned to Holy Name parish, please be advised that Holy Name Parish currently still has almost $640,000 in unpaid long term debt and obligation. When I arrived in Holy Name in May of 2015, that number was almost two million dollars. Thanks to your support we have made great progress in paying down our long-term debt and obligation. The use of Annual Appeal "over-goal" dollars returned to the parish has been an important part of that progress. I promise you that all "over-goal" dollars returned to the parish from the 2019 Appeal will be used to help pay down our long-term debt and obligation. I am trying very hard NOT to have to run a special Campaign to pay down that debt and obligation. A special Campaign would be very expensive (requiring paying an outside fund-raising company). We have no administrative costs for the Annual Catholic Appeal.

The three great Lenten penitential practices are prayer, fasting and almsgiving. I humbly ask me that you join me in donating to the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal. As always, thank you for your generosity.

2 - Some Other Matters :

Many thanks to Fr. Charles Keeney for presiding at our Lenten Holy Hour on March 25th and delivering his very inspiring and thought-provoking reflection on the applicability of St. Peter's Confession of Faith to our individual lives and circumstances.

This Sunday will be the Fourth Sunday of Lent, also known as Laetare Sunday, a title based on the Latin for the first word of the Entrance Antiphon: "Rejoice". We've reached the mid-point in Lent and the Church briefly looks forward to the joy of Easter. It's one of only two Sundays each year that priests and deacons can wear rose-colored vestments (a combination of the violet of Lent and the white of Easter). Our schedule for Holy Week appears for the first time in this week's bulletin. Note the hours for Confession on Reconciliation Monday, April 15th. Please make a good Confession during Lent.

Please consider the following commentary on this Week's Readings:

" Scripture Insights

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is traditionally known as Laetare (Latin, 'rejoice') Sunday or rose Sunday. It represents a respite from the long Lenten season, and a glimpse at the wonderful new beginnings that come with Easter resurrection. It will be, in a sense, our homecoming.

Today's First Reading invites us to celebrate with the Israelites their entrance into the Promised Land. Those who had sinned against God had passed away, and a new generation was born during their desert wanderings. To re-consecrate the people to God, Joshua circumcised the males – a sign of the covenant God made with Abraham (Genesis 17:1-27) – and everyone observed Passover, a reminder of God's benevolent care during the Exodus. Then the manna was no more – they had come home.

Likewise, in the Second Readng, Paul invites us to celebrate the way in which God has reconciled all things to himself in Christ so that we can become a new creation in Christ. The Greek kaatallasso means 'to reconcile' or 'to decisively change,' especially when used to refer to the redemption of sinners.

Today's Gospel provides us wth another story of homecoming and new beginings. In the parable, the father completely overlooks the young man's sin and restores him to his family status with a great celebration. How is this like our relationship with God?" (Liturgical Training Publications, At Home with the Word 2019, pg. 63)

STATIONS OF THE CROSS AND LENTEN HOLY HOURS

During Lent we will be having Stations of the Cross in English after the 9:00am Mass on Friday mornings and in Spanish at 7:00pm on Friday evenings. At 7:00pm on Monday evening, April 1st, we will have Stations in English. At 7:00pm on Monday evening, April 8th, we will have a Holy Hour that will include Stations of the Cross and Prayer for Repentance and Mutual Support within our Church.

PRO LIFE QUOTE

PRO LIFE

Words of a pro-life counselor to women considering abortion: "Please consider how beautiful your little boy or little girl is and what will happen if you don't protect them. Please also think about how much joy babies bring into the world. Regardless of your situation, there are many people who will help you overcome the problems you face. Love your baby."
