Deanery B4 Meeting at HNJ Parish

At 7 p.m., November 12, 2019 there will be a Deanery B4 Meeting (educational only, not decision-making) in Holy Name of Jesus Parish's Shepherds Hall. Deanery B4 includes HNJ Parish and several other nearby parishes. At that meeting Diocesan staff will make a presentation providing parishioners with a greater awareness regarding clergy personnel, Mass attendance and other pastoral aspects that may have an impact in planning for the future in our parishes. Spanish translation of the presentation will be available. All HNJ parishioners are invited to attend the meeting. To meet the Diocesan deadline for providing them with the number attending, we ask that, if you plan to attend the meeting please call the Rectory Office (718-768-3071) by Noon, Monday, Nov. 4th.

A las 7 p.m., 12 de noviembre de 2019, habrá una reunión del Decanato B4 (solo educativa, no para la toma de decisiones) en Shepherds Hall. En esa reunión, el personal Diocesano hará una presentación para brindar a los feligreses una mayor conciencia sobre el personal del clero, la asistencia a Misa y otros aspectos pastorales que pueden tener un impacto en la planificación del futuro en nuestras parroquias. La traducción al español de la presentación estará disponible. Todos los feligreses de HNJ están invitados a asistir a la reunión. Si planea asistir a la reunión, llame a la Oficina de la Rectoría (718-768-3071) antes del mediodía del lunes 4 de noviembre.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

1 – Thank you again to the Hispanic Committee for their generous donation to the parish of the proceeds from their October 20th Food Sale. (Otra vez, gracias al Comité y todos que ayudadaron!) Please see the flyers and items in this bulletin about the November 7th Extraordinary Form (Latin) Requiem Mass, the November 12th important Diocesan meeting (concerning future planning for parishes) in Shepherds Hall, the November 16th Parish Youth Group (the CREW) and interested adult companions trip to One World Observatory in lower Manhattan, and the November 18th Vocations Holy Hour.

2 – ACA Update: Below you will see a box updating you on our progress to date with the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). At this point $53,763 in "over Diocesan-goal") dollars ($99, 827 paid to date minus $46,064 Diocesan goal) collected are coming back to HNJ parish. These "over-goal" dollars are critical to the financial health of HNJ parish. Every dollar that comes back to the parish is being used to help pay down our still very large debt obligation. THANK YOU AGAIN TO ALL 2019 ACA DONORS. Please complete pledge payments as soon as possible in accordance with your payment schedules.

3 – Some brief words on Vocations: November 3–9 is National Vocation Awareness Week. It is certainly a time when we should all pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated religious life. It is also a time when young people (and people not so young!) are reminded to ask themselves the question: Am I being called to serve as a priest, a deacon, or a religious sister or brother? We are certain that God has not stopped calling people to those vocations. The problem is that people are not responding to His call. The vocation call often begins as something very small. To anyone who feels even a slight call to or interest in these vocations some recommended first steps include more frequent attendance at Mass, reception of the Holy Eucharist, and prayer (especially prayer before the Blessed Sacrament and prayers to our Blessed Mother). If the call to or interest in these vocations continues (even slightly, remembering that this a gradual process), a recommended next step would be to speak to a priest, a deacon, or a religious sister or brother, who can give you additional guidance. At that early stage you will not be asked to make any commitments. Please do not ignore what might be a vocational call.

Algunas palabras sobre Vocaciones: del 3 al 9 de Noviembre es la Semana Nacional de Concienciación Vocacional. Ciertamente es un tiempo que debemos orar por las vocaciones al sacerdocio, el diaconado y la vida religiosa consagrada. También es un momento en que se recuerda a los jóvenes (¡y a las personas no tan jóvenes!) que se hagan la pregunta: ¿Me llaman para servir como sacerdote, diácono, hermano o hermana religioso? Estamos seguros de que Dios no ha dejado de llamar a las personas a esas vocaciones. El problema es que la gente no responde a su llamado. La llamada vocacional comienza como algo muy pequeño. Para cualquiera que sienta un pequeño llamado o interés en estas vocaciones, algunos primeros pasos recomendados incluyen asistencia más frecuente a la Misa, recepción de la Sagrada Eucaristía y oración (especialmente oración ante el Santísimo Sacramento y oraciones a nuestra Santísima Madre). Si la llamada o el interés en estas vocaciones continúa (aunque sea un poco, recordando que este es un proceso gradual), el siguiente paso recomendado sería hablar con un sacerdote, un diácono o una hermana o hermano religioso, que puede brindarle orientación adicional. En esa etapa temprana no se le pedirá que haga ningún compromiso. Por favor, no ignore lo que podría ser un llamado vocacional.

Scripture Insights

Please consider the following commentary on this Sunday's Readings: Reading I: Wisdom 11:22—12:2; Reading II: 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2; Gospel: Luke 11:1-10

"In an amusing account, Luke tells the story of Zacchaeus, a well-known tax collector, short in stature, who climbs a tree in his excitement to catch a glimpse of Jesus passing through Jericho on his way to Jerusalem. His loss of dignity must have been amusing to the crowds. As Jesus passes by, he looks up and says to Zacchaeus, 'Come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house.' Zacchaeus welcomes Jesus with joy. This encounter transforms Zacchaeus and he promises to give away half his possessions to the poor and to pay restitution to anyone he harmed, Jesus accepts Zacchaeus' faith, saying, 'Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.' Every encounter with Jesus brings with it the challenge to make a free decision. Zacchaeus seizes the moment and his encounter with Jesus changes his life. His experience also demonstrates the true attitude toward wealth: to give away one's surplus to those in need and not to defraud another of what is rightfully theirs.

This story is another example in which Luke's Gospel account presents Jesus turning social expectations upside down. The people are shocked that Jesus is inviting himself to the home of a tax collector, a sinner. Jesus goes further and acknowledges that Zacchaeus has been granted salvation and that he 'too is a descendant of Abraham.' Zacchaeus' ability to change his way of life is an example of how Abraham's descendants should act. Abraham is among those in the Old Testament who are heirs to God's promises."

RCIA

(Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

The RCIA Program will begin meeting in the Rectory every Wednesday evening at 7PM starting in early October. This is the program for people who would like to be baptized in the Catholic Church. This is also for members of the Church who never were able to receive the fullness of the sacraments (Communion and/or Confirmation). If you are interested, please contact the Rectory at 718-768-3071.

FOR THOSE WHO ARE ILL:

Please pray for the health and wholeness of all the sick and all who give them care, especially for Carolyn Lucca, Migdalia Cintron, Thomas Flynn, Hector Betancourt, Daniel McNulty, Dino Sisto, Richie Day, Nicoleta Cordero, Debbie and Rebecca Wareham, Ann Quigley, Richard Booher, Ellen Papa, Rosie Pira-Ursino, The Catapano Family, Eileen Houlihan, Patrick Cregg, Marilyn Bloom and Joe Gallagher.

For Our Departed Loved Ones…

We ask for your prayers for those of our community who have gone before us into the fullness of life and also for those they have left behind.

Please remember those enrolled in our Purgatorial Society on Sundays at 7:30 a.m.

The Food Pantry will distribute food from the rectory basement between 2 and 3 pm on Nov. 2, 23 (changed date) and Dec. 7 & 21. At this time, rice, canned fruit, and cereal are needed. We thank the teachers, parents, and children of PK280, class 143 for visiting the food pantry on Thursday morning Oct. 24 and their generous food donation.

All Souls Day Envelopes

November is the month when the Church remembers the souls of the dead in a special way. During November, in addition to the specific intentions of a particular Mass, we will be remembering at all of the Masses the souls of the deceased whose names are included in the basket of envelopes that will remain on the Altar for the entire month. We have already received many envelopes and additional envelopes are available in the rear of the church.

Veterans Day at Holy Name

Monday, November 11th is Veterans Day. We will be remembering our veterans at our weekend (11/9-11/10) Masses and at our 9 a.m. Monday morning Mass.
