Thank you in advance for your generosity.*

INCREASED GIVING & FAITH DIRECT

We have previously advised you that, due to Diocese of Brooklyn concerns about the Delta Variant, we have had to cancel our large fund-raising events (such as Radio Bingo, etc.) for the rest of the year. To help us make up for that lost revenue and to maintain our overall revenue flow, we are humbly asking parishioners to increase your weekly offerings (cash, check, or Faith Direct) by even a few dollars, if you can afford to do so.

E-giving via Faith Direct is an excellent way to help us maintain a consistent revenue flow. Please consider enrolling in Faith Direct. If you are already enrolled, please consider increasing you weekly / monthly offering. New enrollments and increases can be made on-line at:

Faith.Direct/NY349.

Thank you and God bless you.

MONTH'S MIND MASS

In Memory of

MSGR. MICHAEL J. CURRAN

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6

5:30 p.m. in Holy Name Church

livestream: facebook.com/HolyNameBrooklyn

10/1/1955 - 10/10/2021

Msgr Curran will also be remembered at all Masses on Sunday, November 7.

SUNDAY ROSARY AT HNJ

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31

Members of the Holy Name Council of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society will lead the recitation of the Rosary in the Church immediately after the 12 Noon Mass (approximately 1 p.m.) next Sunday, October 31, 2021.

If you can, please join them for this great way to start your week — and complete the month of October, the Month of the Most Holy Rosary!

ALL SAINTS DAY

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1

9 a.m. in Holy Name Church and live streamed

Because this Holy Day falls on a Monday this year, the obligation is dispensed. Our All Saints Mass will be at 9 a.m. on Monday, November 1.

Please note: There will be no Vigil Mass on Sunday evening, October 31 or Monday evening, November 1.

ALL SOULS DAY MASSES

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2

9 a.m. and at 7 p.m. in Holy Name Church and live streamed

Our Masses will be at 9 a.m. and at 7 p.m.. Each will be for the intention of the Mass and for all the souls of the faithful departed.

TRADITIONAL REQUIEM LATIN MASS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4

7 p.m. in Holy Name Church

All are invited to attend this Mass in the Extraordinary Form (Latin Requiem Mass) for the repose of the soul of dearly departed Dr. Philip Caliendo, a beloved Xavier High School Latin teacher for nearly 30 years.

MEMORIAL MASS FOR THOSE WHO PASSED AWAY THIS YEAR

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6

9 a.m. in Holy Name Church and livestreamed

Our 9 a.m. Mass on Saturday, November 6 will be in memory of those who passed away this year.

At this Mass, we will read aloud the names of the deceased whose Funeral Masses were celebrated in HNJ Church this year.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

I'll begin by thanking everyone again for their prayers for Msgr. Michael Curran, our much-loved weekend Assistant Priest (and distinguished Seminary Professor and Pastor-emeritus of two parishes) who passed away on October 10. Cardinal Dolan was the presiding celebrant at Msgr. Mike's Vigil Mass at St. Joseph's Seminary in the Dunwoodie section of Yonkers. Bishop DiMarzio was the presiding celebrant at the Funeral Mass in St. Thomas More Church, one of three worship sites in Blessed Trinity parish in Breezy Point, where Msgr. Mike had served as Pastor. Many bishops and priests concelebrated those Masses, which was not surprising because Msgr. Mike was held in such high-regard by his fellow clergy.

Please note that, here at Holy Name of Jesus Parish, our 5:30 p.m. Vigil Mass on Saturday, November 6 will be a "Month's Mind Mass" for Msgr. Curran. We will (as required) use the Mass prayers and readings for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, and the Mass will satisfy the Sunday Mass attendance obligation. During the Mass, however, we will be remembering Msgr. Curran in a particular way. We hope as many as possible can join us then, but the Monsignor will also be remembered at our Sunday Masses on November 7.

I thank Deacon Gerry Devine for presiding, preaching and leading us in the Rosary at our parish Holy Hour for Life last Sunday. Remember that October is both Respect Life Month and the Month of the Most Holy Rosary. Please pray the rosary on your own or join us for the communal recitation of the Rosary each weekday after the 9 a.m. Mass.

The Knights of Columbus and Holy Name Society will also jointly lead a recitation of the Rosary immediately after the 12 Noon Mass (i.e., about 1 p.m.) in HNJ Church on Sunday, October 31.

Last Sunday afternoon, October 17, it was my privilege to baptize Layne McKeown McNally, who is the second daughter of Alison and Stephen McNally, whom I married in HNJ Church in August 2015. We ask all of God's blessings on Layne, her parents, grandparents, godparents, and all of her loved ones.

As previously announced, this Sunday is World Mission Sunday. Please be as generous as you can in our Second Collections at this weekend's (October 23/24) Masses, which will all go for the support of the Missions. I and Fr. Charles Keeney, the Director of the Mission Office and the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for the Brooklyn Diocese, thank you in advance for your generosity.

November 1 through 7 will be a very full week liturgically at Holy Name. Monday, November 1 is All Saints Day. It is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year and our 9 a.m. Mass on Monday will be our All Saints Day Mass. November is the Month of All Souls, which will be the focus of many of our Masses for the remainder of the week. Tuesday, November 2 is All Souls Day. It is not a Holy Day of Obligation, but we will be remembering all of the deceased at our 9 a.m. Mass on Tuesday and also at an additional All Souls Mass at 7 p.m. on Tuesday evening. There will be a Traditional Latin Requiem Mass in HNJ Church at 7 p.m. on Thursday, November 4. At our 9 a.m. Mass on Saturday morning, November 6, we will read aloud the names of all the deceased for whom we celebrated Funeral Masses in HNJ Church during the past year. As described above, our Saturday evening 5:30 PM Vigil Mass on November 6 will be a "Month's Mind Mass" for Msgr. Michael Curran, whom we will also be remembering at our Sunday Masses on November 7.

Bishop DiMarzio's article entitled "This is a Time Not to Slow Down, But to Pursue New Horizons" in the October 16 edition of The Tablet includes some very interesting insights into the transition to our new Bishop-Designate Robert Brennan who will be installed as the Eighth Bishop of Brooklyn on November 30. Please continue to pray for both Bishop DiMarzio and Bishop Brennan.

Looking More Closely at the Word

Blindness of Spirit

by Bro. Silas Henderson, S.D.S.

When I moved to Tucson a few years ago, one of the realities I had to adjust to was the large number of homeless people found in nearly every part of the city. The weather — especially the minimal rainfall and mild winters — make this a natural landing place for those who might not easily find a home in other parts of the country. As much as I hate to admit it, I still sometimes find myself feeling embarrassed or disconcerted by the extended hands or incoherent mumbling. This is a challenging reality, especially when I remember that as Christians — and particular in my vocation as a religious brother — we're called to be people of encounter.

With all this in mind, it's easy to understand the discomfort that Jesus' followers seemed to have felt in this Sunday's passage from the Gospel of Mark. After all, the blind man, Bartimaeus, was causing a spectacle, shouting at Jesus. But even after the people in the crowd told him to be quiet, he kept calling out "all the more, 'Son of David, have pity on me.'"

To really get a sense of the importance of this story — which is much more than just another account of one of Jesus' miracles — we have to think about where it falls in the Gospel of Mark. The healing of the blind Bartimaeus is, in fact, linked to the healing of another blind man, recounted only a few chapters earlier (8:22-26). These two stories form "bookends" for one of the most important sections of Mark's Gospel in which Jesus tries to help his followers understand who he is and what his mission really is. But, as we've discovered over the past several Sundays, the Apostles and the other disciples don't seem to be able to comprehend Jesus' message or to understand the true cost and meaning of discipleship. After all, these are the same men who openly opposed him when Jesus tried to teach them about his coming suffering and death.

But then, this Sunday we are given the story of this blind beggar who seems to be able to see what the Apostles cannot. In fact, the physical healing of Bartimaeus is a powerful reminder that, when we open ourselves to God's grace, we can be healed of that blindness of spirit that sometimes prevents us from following Jesus with freedom and joy, which is an important part of discipleship.

Saint Mark beautifully describes Bartimaeus' excitement when Jesus finally calls for him, "He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus." There is an energy in his response that wonderfully exemplifies the enthusiasm that should be a hallmark of our discipleship. When the Lord calls, we must be ready to respond. And because of his faith and willingness to act, Jesus rewards the blind man by not only restoring his physical sight but by empowering him to live out his faith in the community of disciples. Pope Benedict XVI reflected on this when he remarked:

"Bartimaeus represents one aware of his pain and crying out to the Lord, confident of being healed… In the encounter with Christ, lived with faith, Bartimaeus regains the light he had lost, and with it the fullness of his dignity: he gets back onto his feet and resumes the journey, which from that moment has a guide, Jesus, and a path, the same that Jesus is travelling. The evangelist tells us nothing more about Bartimaeus, but in him he shows us what discipleship is: following Jesus "along the way," in the light of faith."

The invitation for us this Sunday is to humbly reflect on the ways we might be spiritually blind by asking ourselves what habits, attitudes, and ideologies hold us back from becoming the disciples that Jesus is calling us to be.

Prayer

May the Lord Jesus place his hands on our eyes that we may begin to catch sight of the things that are not seen more than the things that are seen.

May he open our eyes that they will alight on the things to come more than on the things of this age.

May he unveil the vision of our heart that it may contemplate God in spirit.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ to whom belong glory and power forever.

DIACONATE FORMATION

INQUIRY SESSIONS ABOUT TO BEGIN

The Diaconate Formation Office for the Diocese of Brooklyn has begun the admissions process for those men interested in applying for the Permanent Diaconate. The next Aspirancy Class is slated to begin in September 2022.

Bilingual Inquiry Sessions (English / Spanish) start soon and will be available during Fall 2021. They will include detailed presentations about the Diaconate, the Admissions Process, and the involvement of their wives (for those who are married), parish, and family.

To attend one of the Inquiry Sessions, a man must be between the ages of 35 and 60 and must first meet with his pastor to discuss his interest and to review the criteria for admission to the Aspirancy Stage of Diaconate Formation. Fr. Larry Ryan will be happy to speak with any man from HNJ Parish who would like to attend one of the sessions. If you believe the Lord is calling you to serve as one of His deacons, please contact Fr. Larry at the Rectory Office as soon as possible.

For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith which is in Jesus Christ. - 1 Timothy 3:13

FORMACIÓN DEL DIACONADO

SESIONES DE CONSULTA A PUNTO DE COMENZAR

La Oficina de Formación del Diaconado de la Diócesis de Brooklyn ha comenzado el proceso de admisión para aquellos hombres interesados en postularse para el Diaconado Permanente. La próxima clase de aspirantes está programada para comenzar en septiembre de 2022.

Las sesiones de investigación bilingüe (inglés / español) comienzan pronto y estarán disponibles durante el otoño de 2021. Incluirán presentaciones detalladas sobre el Diaconado, el proceso de admisión y la participación de sus esposas (para las que están casadas), la parroquia y la familia.

Para asistir a una de las Sesiones de Investigación, un hombre debe tener entre 35 y 60 años y primero debe reunirse con su pastor para discutir su interés y revisar los criterios de admisión a la Etapa de Aspiración de la Formación del Diaconado. Fr. Larry Ryan estará dispuesto de hablar con cualquier hombre de la parroquia de HNJ que quiera asistir a una de las sesiones. Si cree que el Señor lo está llamando a servir como uno de Sus diáconos, comuníquese con el Fr. Larry en la oficina de la rectoría lo antes posible.

Porque los diáconos que realizan bien su trabajo, se ganan un lugar de honor, y con mayor confianza podrán hablar de su fe en Cristo Jesús. - 1 Timoteo 3:13

THIS WEEK'S REFLECTION

FEAST OF STS. SIMON & JUDE

October 28 - Strive for decreasing returns: Saints Simon and Jude have countless images and namesakes, yet we know almost nothing about these apostles whose feast day is today. They were among the 12 apostles, and tradition has it they spread the Good News in Persia. We honor their memory anyway, knowing that for the faithful, "He must increase, and I must decrease," as John the Baptist put it. To be remembered after death as a faithful apostle is not a bad legacy for any Christian! Do one small act today that makes you recognizable as a faithful apostle.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Giving as God does: Ask yourself this question — what would you pray for if you really believed God could and would do anything for you? In my experience, we all have something. We all have that miracle we're afraid to request, afraid we will be disappointed.

Do we doubt God's readiness to give because we ourselves have such an imperfect understanding of charity and love? Maybe if we had better faith in God we would be more ready to give of ourselves — and maybe if we were more ready to give of ourselves, we would understand more clearly the ways of God.

Because we're not really afraid that God can't do something. We know He can do anything. What we're afraid of is that He will do what He always does: give us what we need, not what we want.

Have you ever had a friend in need and you just wanted to give them something — a meal, a phone call, a text? Not because you knew it would help, but simply because you wanted to reach out. And have they ever said to you: It wasn't so much what you gave, but the fact that you did. You gave them what they needed even if it wasn't what they specifically asked for.

When we give in this manner, we are giving as God does. Sometimes we are afraid to ask because we don't want to be disappointed. But remember, the blind man on the road got what he asked for, but he would have gotten what he needed even if his answer had been the opposite. God's generosity is always reckless, and it's always perfect.
