2022 MASS BOOK OPENS

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2

The 2022 Mass Book will be open as of Tuesday, November 2. You may send your list to the Rectory via mail or drop it off at the Rectory door. Be sure to include your own name and phone number so we can contact you.

During the first week, we will only collect lists; we will number them in the order in which they are received. Please mark the first five dates that are most important to you. We will accommodate everyone's first five dates as best as we can, and then add the rest as soon as the initial lists are done. Since we only have one Mass each weekday, this is the fairest way to do this.

Please remember that the 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Masses on Saturdays allow for multiple intentions (a maximum of five names per Mass.)

MONTH'S MIND MASS

In Memory of

MSGR. MICHAEL J. CURRAN

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6

5:30 p.m. in Holy Name Church

livestream: facebook.com/HolyNameBrooklyn

10/1/1955 - 10/10/2021

Msgr. Curran was a distinguished Moral Theologian and Seminary Professor who also served as the much-loved Pastor of Blessed Trinity Parish in Breezy Point and as a Weekend Assistant Priest at Holy Name. May he rest in peace.

Msgr Curran will also be remembered at all Masses on Sunday, November 7.

SUNDAY ROSARY AT HNJ

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31

Members of the Holy Name Council of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society will lead the recitation of the Rosary in the Church immediately after the 12 Noon Mass (approximately 1 p.m.) on Sunday, October 31, 2021.

If you can, please join them for this great way to start your week — and complete the month of October, the Month of the Most Holy Rosary!

ALL SAINTS DAY

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1

9 a.m. in Holy Name Church and live streamed

Because this Holy Day falls on a Monday this year, the obligation is dispensed. Our All Saints Mass will be at 9 a.m. on Monday, November 1.

Please note: There will be no Vigil Mass on Sunday evening, October 31 or Monday evening, November 1.

ALL SOULS DAY MASSES

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2

9 a.m. and at 7 p.m. in Holy Name Church and live streamed

Our Masses will be at 9 a.m. and at 7 p.m.. Each will be for the intention of the Mass and for all the souls of the faithful departed.

TRADITIONAL REQUIEM LATIN MASS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4

7 p.m. in Holy Name Church

All are invited to attend this Mass in the Extraordinary Form (Latin Requiem Mass) for the repose of the soul of dearly departed Dr. Philip Caliendo, a beloved Xavier High School Latin teacher for nearly 30 years.

MEMORIAL MASS FOR THOSE WHO PASSED AWAY THIS YEAR

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6

9 a.m. in Holy Name Church and livestreamed

Our 9 a.m. Mass on Saturday, November 6 will be in memory of those who passed away this year.

At this Mass, we will read aloud the names of the deceased whose Funeral Masses were celebrated in HNJ Church this year.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Last Sunday afternoon, I had the privilege of baptizing Emmett Honerkamp here in Holy Name. We welcome him as the newest member of our Catholic Christian family, and ask for all of God's blessings on him as well as on his parents, godparents, and other loved ones.

Two weeks ago, I announced in the Bulletin and at the Masses that, at the direction of Pope Francis, a process has begun in all of the parishes and dioceses around the world (including here at Holy Name and in all the parishes in Brooklyn and Queens) to prepare for a Synod (or Meeting) of Bishops and other key laity, religious, and clergy with the Pope in October 2023. The initial steps in that process are "Listening Sessions" at the parish and deanery (a group of local parishes) level. Our "Listening Session" will take place in Holy Name of Jesus Parish in mid-November, with the day and time to be announced shortly. Pastors have been directed to begin the listening session with prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to guide the participants in the discernment process. Pastors have also been asked to stress that these listening sessions "are not about griping about what is wrong with the Church but rather should be a dialogue about how we can enrich and grow the Church as we journey to the future". The listening sessions are intended to be open and inclusive, with a desire to hear from as many people as possible. The results of the sessions will be consolidated at the diocesan and national levels for forwarding to the Vatican in Rome. Your participation will be important. Please be alert for additional information about the day and time of Holy Name's Listening Session.

Bishop James Massa will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation in Holy Name Church at 4 p.m. on Friday, October 29. Please pray for the Holy Name of Jesus Religious Education Program and St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy students who will be confirmed during that service. Their names will be listed in next weekend's bulletin.

As indicated elsewhere in this bulletin, November 1 through 7 will be a very full week liturgically at Holy Name. Monday, November 1 is All Saints Day. It is a Solemnity as always, but because if falls on a Monday, the obligation to attend Mass has been suspended. Our 9 a.m. Mass on Monday will be our All Saints Day Mass. November is the Month of All Souls, which will be the focus of many of our Masses for the remainder of the week. Tuesday, November 2 is All Souls Day. It is not a Holy Day of Obligation, but we will be remembering all of the deceased at our 9 a.m. Mass on Tuesday and also at an additional All Souls Mass at 7 p.m. on Tuesday evening. There will be a Traditional Latin Requiem Mass in HNJ Church at 7 p.m. on Thursday, November 4. At our 9 a.m. Mass on Saturday morning, November 6, we will read aloud the names of all the deceased for whom we celebrated Funeral Masses in HNJ Church during the past year. Our Saturday evening 5:30 PM Vigil Mass on November 6 will be a "Month's Mind Mass" for Msgr. Michael Curran. We will (as required) use the Mass prayers and readings for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, and the Mass will satisfy the Sunday Mass attendance obligation. During the Mass, however, we will be remembering Msgr. Curran in a particular way. We hope as many as possible can join us then, but the Monsignor will also be remembered at our Sunday Masses on November 7.

ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES

November is the month when the Church remembers the souls of the dead in a special way.

During November, in addition to the specific intentions of each Mass, we remember at all Masses the souls of the deceased whose names are included in the basket of envelopes that will remain on the Altar for the entire month.

We have already received many envelopes and additional ones are available on the tables in the rear of the Church.

Please say a prayer for the dead in your family and community.

PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

In your hands, O Lord,
we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters.
In this life you embraced them with your tender love;
deliver them now from every evil
and bid them eternal rest.
The old order has passed away:
welcome them into paradise,
where there will be no sorrow,
no weeping or pain,
but fullness of peace and joy
with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever.
R/. Amen.

Looking More Closely at the Word

Centuries of God's devoted people have found this prayer on their lips: "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone!" The fundamental prayer has been laid as the cornerstone of many spiritual lives. Where did you learn how to pray or did you? Maybe there is a wisdom figure in your life who inspired and guided you by the genuine, holy simplicity of their lives. His or her example may have led you to God and taught you how to pray. Or perhaps you discovered this art on your own after stumbling over yourself enough times and finally realizing it was time to reach out to Someone greater than yourself. There is a timeless truth that we not only tend to forget, but may have never learned. There is only one God, the Lord alone! As a result, we often worship other gods rather than the One true God. Everything in our life gets distorted and we find ourselves lost and off center.

If we haven't learned it yet, there is a life lesson at the top of all of the possible lessons to be learned. There is One True and Eternal God who alone has a solitary claim on us and must be loved with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. Until we learn this primary lesson, we run the risk of getting distracted and sidetracked. We will also never really figure out what is at the heart of the relationships we share with the other human beings on this planet with whom we share life. That one primary lesson will teach us the second most valuable lesson: that we must love our neighbor as ourselves. You cannot have one without the other. The presence of God in the core soul of each one of us requires that all of our relationships work together. This truth is at the heart of the Gospel.

If every human being, each in their own way, could stumble upon and genuinely embrace this truth, look how different life would be! Our priorities will immediately shift from "I and me" to "us and we" and we will develop a more inclusive vision for our brothers and sisters. Concerned not only about my own wellbeing and happiness but also that of our brothers and sisters, humanity stands a chance at succeeding in the struggle with injustice, abuse, inequity, violence, war, entitlement, and privilege. It seems that getting to this point has been at the heart of the Gospel and the kingdom of God from the moment Jesus first started to preach. It's a wonder why, then, why so many centuries later, we have still failed to achieve his vision. Maybe we just haven't learned our primary lessons yet.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Daily Examen of Stewardship

"Stewardship" can get a bum rap these days. When folks hear the term "stewardship" from the pulpit, their eyes tend to kind of glaze over. "Here's Father asking for more money," they groan inwardly, "Get ready for the passing of the pledge cards."

Christ refutes this idea when he gives us what he calls the greatest commandments — instructing us to love God and to love our neighbor. Now, Christ is a man who chose his words carefully. He meant exactly what he said — and he didn't say that the greatest commandments were to tithe and to give money to charity. If he had wanted stewardship to be only about money, he would have said so.

Sometimes we are indeed called to show our love for God and neighbor in the form of a financial gift. But the concept of Everyday Stewardship — living mindfully in prayer, grateful for our blessings, and gracious to our neighbors, committed to God, and accountable to each other — is about so much more.

I propose a twist on the long-held practice of the "Daily Examen" — a pious devotion wherein, at day's end, we go over the events of the last 24 hours and discern God's will. A Daily Examen of Stewardship might contain questions like this:

- How did I love God today? In whom did I love Him?
- What did God give me today? With whom did I share it? What did I give to Him?
- To whom did I reach out today? Who reached out to me?
- Where was God on my list of priorities today? First? Second? Third, fourth?

DIACONATE FORMATION

INQUIRY SESSIONS ABOUT TO BEGIN

The Diaconate Formation Office for the Diocese of Brooklyn has begun the admissions process for those men interested in applying for the Permanent Diaconate. The next Aspirancy Class is slated to begin in September 2022.

Bilingual Inquiry Sessions (English / Spanish) start soon and will be available during Fall 2021. They will include detailed presentations about the Diaconate, the Admissions Process, and the involvement of their wives (for those who are married), parish, and family.

To attend one of the Inquiry Sessions, a man must be between the ages of 35 and 60 and must first meet with his pastor to discuss his interest and to review the criteria for admission to the Aspirancy Stage of Diaconate Formation. Fr. Larry Ryan will be happy to speak with any man from HNJ Parish who would like to attend one of the sessions. If you believe the Lord is calling you to serve as one of His deacons, please contact Fr. Larry at the Rectory Office as soon as possible.

For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith which is in Jesus Christ. - 1 Timothy 3:13

FORMACIÓN DEL DIACONADO

SESIONES DE CONSULTA A PUNTO DE COMENZAR

La Oficina de Formación del Diaconado de la Diócesis de Brooklyn ha comenzado el proceso de admisión para aquellos hombres interesados en postularse para el Diaconado Permanente. La próxima clase de aspirantes está programada para comenzar en septiembre de 2022.

Las sesiones de investigación bilingüe (inglés / español) comienzan pronto y estarán disponibles durante el otoño de 2021. Incluirán presentaciones detalladas sobre el Diaconado, el proceso de admisión y la participación de sus esposas (para las que están casadas), la parroquia y la familia.

Para asistir a una de las Sesiones de Investigación, un hombre debe tener entre 35 y 60 años y primero debe reunirse con su pastor para discutir su interés y revisar los criterios de admisión a la Etapa de Aspiración de la Formación del Diaconado. Fr. Larry Ryan estará dispuesto de hablar con cualquier hombre de la parroquia de HNJ que quiera asistir a una de las sesiones. Si cree que el Señor lo está llamando a servir como uno de Sus diáconos, comuníquese con el Fr. Larry en la oficina de la rectoría lo antes posible.

Porque los diáconos que realizan bien su trabajo, se ganan un lugar de honor, y con mayor confianza podrán hablar de su fe en Cristo Jesús. - 1 Timoteo 3:13
