During November, in addition to the specific intentions of each Mass, we remember at all Masses the souls of the deceased whose names are included in the basket of envelopes that will remain on the Altar for the entire month.

Additional envelopes are available on the tables in the rear of the Church.

THE 2022 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

The 2022 Mass Book is now open. You may send your list to the Rectory via mail or drop it off at the Rectory door. Be sure to include your own name and phone number so we can contact you.

Please mark the first five dates that are most important to you. We will accommodate everyone's first five dates as best as we can, and then add the rest as soon as the initial lists are done. Since we only have one Mass each weekday, this is the fairest way to do this.

Please remember that the 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Masses on Saturdays allow for multiple intentions (a maximum of five names per Mass.)

O God,

look kindly on your departed veterans who gave their lives in the service of their country.

Grant that through the passion,
death, and resurrection of your Son they may share in the joy of your heavenly kingdom
and rejoice in you with your saints forever.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Confirmation: Congratulations to our Confirmandi! On the afternoon of Friday, October 29, twenty-seven students from our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Academy and from our parish Religious Education Program received the Sacrament of Confirmation administered by Bishop James Massa. Their names are listed on the fifth page of this bulletin. Congratulations and thanks also to their parents, other family members, sponsors, teachers and the catechists who helped them reach this important day in their spiritual lives. Special thanks to Bishop Massa, our Coordinator of Religious Education Kathryn Sisto, our Director of Music Ivonne Rojas and the many other people who helped make this such a beautiful liturgy.

Vocation Awareness: November 7-13 is National Vocation Awareness Week. It is certainly a time when we should all pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated religious life. It is also a time when young people (and people not so young!) are reminded to ask themselves the question: "Am I being called to serve as a priest, a deacon, or a religious sister or brother?" We are certain that God has not stopped calling people to those vocations. The problem is that people are not responding to His call. The vocation call often begins as something very small. To anyone who feels even a slight call to or interest in these vocations, some recommended first steps include more frequent attendance at Mass, reception of the Holy Eucharist, and prayer (especially prayer before the Blessed Sacrament and prayers to our Blessed Mother.) If the call to or interest in these vocations continues (even slightly, remembering that this a gradual process), a recommended next step would be to speak to a priest, a deacon, or a religious sister or brother who can give you additional guidance. At that early stage, you will not be asked to make any commitments. Please do not ignore what might be a vocational call.

Thursday, November 11 is Veterans Day, a day when we remember the millions of veterans who served on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States during times of war or armed conflict. At our 9 a.m. Mass, we will be praying for all veterans, as well as for the specific Mass intention. In my "Notes" for previous Veterans Days, I pointed out the historical and current connections between the members of the U.S. Armed Forces and the Catholic religious and clergy who minister to them, to their dependents, and especially those in veterans hospitals. God bless all of our veterans (in particular, those from our own Parish!) as well as all Catholic priests, deacons and religious brothers / sisters who have ministered to them and continue to do so.

November, the Month of All Souls: Here in HNJ Parish during November we will be remembering the souls of the faithfully departed in several ways. By the time you read this bulletin we will have already celebrated Masses for all of the faithfully departed, for those whose Funeral Masses were celebrated in HNJ Church during the past year, and a "Month's Mind" Mass for Msgr. Michael Curran. At the 5:30 Mass on November 13, we will remember the deceased members of the Irish Parade Committee. At the 12 Noon Mass on November 14, we will remember the deceased members of HNJ Parish's Knights of Columbus Council. Your All Souls envelopes will remain on the altar throughout the month. In his "Put Out into the Deep" Column in this week's Tablet Bishop DiMarzio wrote: "We can help [the souls in Purgatory] by our prayers and especially by remembrance in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. In every Eucharistic prayer, there is a mention of the souls who have departed, because we are united to them in the Communion of Saints. Our praying for them at Mass … has great effect upon lessening their pain of longing". May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace, Amen.

SYNOD LISTENING SESSION AT HNJ

Dear Parishioners, Neighbors and Friends,

Pope Francis has begun a world-wide process in preparation for a Synod (Meeting) of Bishops in Rome in October 2023. The process begins with "Listening Sessions" to be held in every parish around the world. These Listening Sessions are intended to be open and inclusive with a desire to hear from as many people as possible. They will begin with prayer, asking for the guidance of the Holy Spirit. After prayer, the Sessions will follow a structured format that focuses not on complaints about what is wrong with the Church, but rather on how we can enrich and grow the Church, as we journey together into the future. The results of the Listening Sessions will be consolidated at the diocesan and national levels for forwarding to Rome.

HNJ's "Listening Session"
Shepherds Hall (the HNJ Church basement)
Sunday, November 14, 2021, at 1:30 pm.

Your input is very important. We will make room (with COVID precautions) for all who can join us. Please RSVP by Tuesday, November 9, to the Rectory by phone (718-768-3071) or by email to hnjbrooklyn@gmail.com, giving your name and telephone number. Please feel free to invite your adult children, relatives, neighbors and friends. However, we will need their names and contact information as well when you RSVP.

Thank you, God bless you, and we hope to see you on November 14.

Fr. Larry Ryan

Looking More Closely at the Word

On December 10, 1979, a very petite holy woman known as Mother Teresa of Calcutta spoke these words in her Nobel Peace Prize Acceptance Speech, "But I am sure in the families and many of our homes, maybe we are not hungry for a piece of bread, but maybe there is somebody there in the family who is unwanted, unloved, uncared, forgotten, there isn't love. Love begins at home. And love to be true has to hurt. I never forget a little child who taught me a very beautiful lesson. They heard in Calcutta, the children, that Mother Teresa had no sugar for her children, and this little one, Hindu boy four years old, he went home and he told his parents: I will not eat sugar for three days, I will give my sugar to Mother Teresa. How much a little child can give. After three days they brought him into our house, and there was this little one who could scarcely pronounce my name, he loved with great love, he loved until it hurt. And this is what I bring before you, to love one another until it hurts, but don't forget that there are many children, many children, many men and women who haven't got what you have. And remember to love them until it hurts."

Living authentically and walking with holiness always involves sacrifice. It has to hurt. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even what is apparently a generous gesture can be nothing. It is no wonder that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus and the young child in our story above the interest of Mother Teresa. It is easy to make the houses of our lives look like they are in perfect order when in fact they are in shambles within. Religion can sometimes make this hypocritical masquerade easy to accomplish. We can find ourselves in all the right holy places, reciting all of the correct prayers, participating in community collections, and reciting the proper doctrines only to find ourselves empty, shallow, self-focused, and overly anxious about personal concerns.

The one who learns to discover their inner poverty, their spiritual poverty, is the only one who can truly place him or herself at the mercy of God. It is only when we allow ourselves to be empty that we realize Who we actually need to fill us. This is the real meaning of trust. Many of us are afraid to take the plunge. We allow ourselves to detach from only so much, always keeping a watchful eye on the protection of our securities. We understand the value of poverty, but we do not want to become too poor. As long as we are able to recognize this tension, our reluctance to let go and our struggle, we can continue our journey of humbly learning how to love so deeply that it hurts. God understands and waits. ©LPi

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." - Mark 12: 42-43

NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

NOVEMBER 7 - 13, 2021

The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate the 45th annual National Vocation Awareness Week from November 7-13, 2021. During this week, dioceses across the United States will hold events to foster an appreciation for vocations and pray specifically for those discerning a call to ordained ministry and consecrated life.

In his message for the 58th annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis offered St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model for vocational discernment. “Amid all these upheavals, [St. Joseph] found the courage to follow God’s will. So too in a vocation: God’s call always urges us to take a first step, to give ourselves, to press forward. There can be no faith without risk. Only by abandoning ourselves confidently to grace, setting aside our own programmes and comforts, can we truly say “yes” to God,” he said, and exhorted the Church to look to St. Joseph as an “outstanding example of acceptance of God’s plans."

Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son’s Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Look: Have you ever made the mistake of telling your spouse that you're out of something — only to see them respond with The Look? Then you realize it: of course, he or she knows you're out of butter. They knew it before a butter shortage was even a blip on your radar.
We might go to the fridge and lament the complete lack of ketchup. Then someone moves a couple items and show us the ketchup that so savagely eluded us just moments before.

Sometimes, we all have "the look" when dealing with God. We tell Him our stores are empty. "I'm out, God! I can't do any more! Can't give any more. Can't take any more. It's all gone." But we forget: God is the keeper of our stores. He is the one who fills them, and the one who watches as they empty.

See, we don't know how much we are capable of loving. We don't know how much we are capable of serving. We don't know how much we are capable of hoping. We see everything with spouse eyes. Only our Creator truly knows the limits of His creation.

Do you ever make the mistake of telling God "I'm done"? Be careful the next time you do. Chances are, He's far from finished working.

THIS WEEK'S REFLECTION

MEMORIAL OF ST. FRANCIS CABRINI

November 13 - Celebrate a saint for immigrants: As we wrap up National Vocation Awareness Week, we celebrate one of the truly great American vocations of the 20th century, Frances Xavier Cabrini. Mother Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be made a saint. She came to the United States from Italy in 1889 to help the flood of immigrants coming to America. Starting with nothing, she founded schools, orphanages, and hospitals to provide support for her fellow immigrants. In her spirit, reach out to immigrants in need—documented or otherwise—they are everywhere to be found these days.
