A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Last weekend's snow storm was a big challenge. A big "Thank You" to our Custodian, John Murphy, for his many hours of plowing and to some of the members of Holy Name's Knights of Columbus Council for their help.

This week, January 30 through February 5, we observed Catholic Schools Week throughout the Brooklyn Diocese. The theme for the week was "Faith, Excellence, Service", a theme reflected well in our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy's Mission Statement: "St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy exists to educate students of all faiths in a Catholic, Christ-centered environment. We foster spiritual development, academic excellence, responsibility to self, and service to others."

Catholic elementary school education has played a large role in HNJ Parish's history for over 135 years, first with Holy Name School and now with its successor, SJWCA. The Academy is led by an energetic and creative Principal, Stephanie Germann, who is supported by a dedicated faculty, administrative staff, and Board of Directors chaired by Christopher Artz. The high-quality academic, religious, and social development attracts students from Windsor Terrace and several other areas. Financial assistance is available. Please see the Academy's web site for additional information about tours and registration, and let others know about the treasure we have here in SJWCA.

Friday, February 11, is the Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes and World Day of the Sick. We will be remembering all of the sick at our 9 a.m. Mass that day. Also, please remember that the Sacrament of the Sick (Anointing) is available by calling the Rectory.

COLLECTION RESULTS

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-6

Second: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

For a humble guy, St. Paul really tells it like it is. Paul lists those witnesses who actually saw the risen Jesus, last and least of these being Paul himself. Now we are used to thinking of Paul as one of the greatest apostles, even though we know he once persecuted Christians. So you might think he is being overly humble, like someone fishing for a compliment. No, Paul is only interested in making sure the Corinthians understand just how much God has done.

Besides being "born abnormally" (1 Cor. 15:8), that is, coming to follow Christ in such an unusual way, he felt unworthy because of so many Christians he hurt before his conversion. Yet he turns that unworthiness into an example of how much God has done through him. So he can say that he worked harder than any other apostles because of God's grace, not Paul's strength.

In today's Gospel, Peter has a similar experience. He was a fisherman who knew his business and knew that some days, the fish just aren't there. So when they caught enough fish to fill both boats, he realized that his pride was sinful. He was unworthy to receive such bounty from the Lord. And yet Jesus tells him that "you will be catching men" (Luke 5:10).

How many of us are like Peter and Paul, thinking we know just what our place in the world is, relying on our own strengths to do our jobs? They found Jesus calling them to a much more challenging life. Do we have the courage to listen to God's call to serve?

I became a physician in order to help save lives. I am at once a physician, a citizen, and a woman, and I am not willing to stand aside and allow the concept of expendable human lives to turn this great land of ours into just another exclusive reservation where only the perfect, the privileged, and the planned have the right to live.
