HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

ASCENSION THURSDAY - MAY 26

The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord is a Holy Day of Obligation. At HNJ, we will observe the Solemnity on Thursday, May 26, 2022 with Masses at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Please note: We will not have a Vigil Mass on Wednesday, May 25.

Both Masses will be livestreamed on our parish Facebook page: facebook.com/HolyNameBrooklyn

SUNDAY ROSARY AT HNJ

SUNDAY, MAY 29

Members of the Holy Name Council of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society will lead the recitation of the Rosary in the Church immediately after the 12 Noon Mass (approx. 1 p.m.) next Sunday, May 29, 2022.

If you can, please join them for this great way to start your week!

THIS WEEK'S REFLECTION

HERE COMES EVERYBODY

We hear a lot about "inclusion" these days—in our schools, workplaces, churches, and communities at large. For Christians, inclusion isn't just a buzzword—it's at the heart of our faith. Jesus didn't just include the marginalized, he put them front and center. Saint Paul emphasized repeatedly that we are one in Christ. The very word catholic means "universal." And yet, humanity has never been more rife with division—from the world stage down to our own families.

How can we strive to overcome differences? To respect the dignity of every person? To celebrate diversity while living in solidarity? Everyone belongs. Let's commit to that much, at least.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

On Friday, May 13, the Memorial of our Lady of Fatima, we had a "Rosary Rally" during which students from our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy recited the Rosary in HNJ Church.

On Saturday, May 14, I had the privilege of Baptizing Annabelle Rose Hauck here in HNJ Church. We welcome her as the newest member of our Faith Community and congratulate Annabelle and her loved ones.

On Sunday, May 15, members of Holy Name of Jesus Knights of Columbus Council 4783 celebrated the Council's 62nd Anniversary by attending the 10:30 Mass followed by a Communion Breakfast at the renovated Council hall. The guest speaker was Edward Clancy, the Director of Outreach for Aid to the Church in Need, a Catholic non-profit organization working in many countries throughout the world (including Ukraine). Many thanks to the Council members who organized this very successful event.

As we've been announcing for the last few weeks, we invite everyone to join us in Shepherds Hall immediately after the 10:30 a.m. Mass (approximately 11:30 a.m.) on Sunday, May 22 to recognize Cheryl Jablow for her thousands of hours of volunteer work coordinating the cleaning and decorating of Holy Name of Jesus Church over the last several years. We hope as many of you as possible can join us to thank her before she leaves HNJ to start the next chapter of her life with her family in Arizona. Light refreshments will be available.

We will have our 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal "In-pew" solicitation at all of the Masses this weekend (May 21/22). Please see the item below where I make my "case"—and my personal request—for your support of the Appeal. The ACA is extremely important both to our Diocese and to our parish, and there is particular concern this year about the number of donors. If you have not yet done so, please make a pledge during the In-Pew Weekend. As always, thank you for your generosity.

Please remember to attend Mass at 9 a.m. or 7 p.m. on May 26, the Ascension Thursday Holy Day of Obligation.

From Friday, May 27, through Saturday, June 4 (the nine days between Ascension Thursday and Pentecost), we will praying a simple Pentecost Novena. The Pentecost Novena is modeled after the "First of All Novenas", which took place (as described

A REQUEST FROM FR. LARRY AND HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH

"...keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus who himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" (Acts 20:35)

With so much uncertainty in the world, the resolve of our priests and religious, ministers and teachers, and all people of faith has only grown stronger in Brooklyn and Queens, but so have the needs.

More than ever, we need your help to spread the light of Christ to our city and neighbors by giving to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal. Your participation joins you in faith with others in the Church to do good works during challenging times in new innovative ways:

- ♥ Connecting our young people to the Church
- ♥ Giving shelter to the homeless
- ♥ Sharing our faith
- ♥ Feeding the hungry
- ♥ Welcoming the stranger
- ♥ Educating the young
- ♥ Visiting the sick and imprisoned
- ♥ Caring for the elderly
- ♥ Forming deacons and priests

The work you support with a donation to the Appeal goes beyond the abilities of any one parish while benefiting the faithful in all parishes including Holy Name. As a committed parishioner, friend, and Catholic, we need your support to uphold our mission. I, and the Diocese, are grateful to the 92 donors who have already made a generous commitment to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal.

Holy Name's Parish Goal: $55,623.00. Amount Paid by Parishioners to Date: $54,286.00.

Along with other parishes across the Diocese, we will conduct an In-Pew Commitment Weekend at Holy Name on May 21 & 22, asking for the support of all of you who are able to contribute. I ask that you make a pledge at this time, if you can.

If you prefer, you may also make your gift on-line now at annualcatholicappeal.org; text DONATE to 917-336-1255; or call 718-965-7375 and have a pledge card mailed to your home.

Thank you and God bless you for your generosity.

- Fr. Larry Ryan

Suggested giving amounts:

- $100 pledge
- $200 pledge = $25 a month
- $350 pledge = $10 a week
- $1,200 pledge = $5 a day

Annual Catholic Appeal 2022
DIOCESE OF BROOKLYN | Respond in Faith, Hope & Charity

Looking More Closely at the Word

Living In Love

by Br. Silas Henderson, S.D.S.

Before becoming a brother in the Society of the Divine Savior (the Salvatorians), I was a Benedictine monk for more than a decade. And, as a Benedictine, I was immersed in the very practical wisdom of St. Benedict and the Rule he wrote for his monks more than 1400 years ago. One of the defining characteristics of this great saint was his balanced understanding of the human person and of community dynamics. We see this at work in the third chapter of his Rule and his insistence that the abbot of the monastery call the community together whenever there was important business to discuss: "Let the Abbot call together the whole community and state the matter to be acted upon… The reason we have said that all should be called for counsel is that the Lord often reveals to the younger what is best."

We see the same wisdom was at work in the first reading of this Sunday's Mass. Recall how in the Acts of the Apostles, St. Luke presented that first generation of believers as living an almost idyllic existence, devoting themselves to the Apostles' teachings, "and the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers… All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need" (2:42, 44-45).

But this way of life was short-lived. After a short time, the Church faced persecution and wrestled with questions of inclusivity and what should be expected of the growing number of non-Jewish believers. While this might seem like a small issue for us today, this all-important question threatened to tear the Church apart. Recognizing what was at stake, the community had to discern how to respond to the challenges they faced.

So, what did the leaders of the Church do? They came together as a community, prayed, and listened to one another. Together they discerned how the Holy Spirit was at work in the Church — just as Jesus had promised it would be.

In the end, rather than closing ranks and opting for exclusivity, the Church's first leaders imagined a new way forward and enlisted others to help them in their mission: "The apostles and elders, in agreement with the whole church, decided to choose representatives and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. The ones they chose were Judas, who was called Barsabbas, and Silas, leaders among the brothers" (Acts 15:22). Humbly recognizing both their own limitations and opportunities before them, the leaders looked beyond the enclosed circle of the Apostles to find new workers capable of responding to the present needs.

This willingness to "look beyond the boundaries" was held up as the ideal for the Church by Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio only days before he was pope in 2013. In a speech delivered during the "general congregations" preceding the conclave, he said: "Evangelizing pre-supposes a desire in the Church to come out of herself. The Church is called to come out of herself and to go to the peripheries, not only geographically, but also in the existential peripheries: the mystery of sin, of pain, of injustice, of ignorance, and indifference to religion, of intellectual currents, and of all misery." Despite criticism from many fronts, Pope Francis has made this vision of a Church moving "beyond the boundaries" the guiding principle of his ministry and this has certainly been a dominant theme in his papacy. Nothing less is expected of us.

In the end, what's at stake in all of this is the mission of the Church. Mutual discernment and collaboration in ministry — as we see it at work in the Early Church and in St. Benedict's monks — calls for each one of to step up and own our faith, living out our unique vocation. Each one of us has a part to play. This is what we're called to, and this is how we help the Church more perfectly reflect the beauty of that Heavenly Jerusalem (cf. the second reading), becoming more than we ever imagined she — that is, more than we — could be.

in Chapter 1, Verse 14 of the Acts of the Apostles) when the Apostles, Our Blessed Mother Mary, and other disciples "devoted themselves to prayer" from the first Ascension Thursday until the coming of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost. Here at HNJ Parish we will simply recite the "Come Holy Spirit" prayer plus one Our Father and One Hail Mary after Communion at each of our 9 a.m. weekday Masses (and at the 7:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, May 29.) We will be asking especially for the graces of the Holy Spirit for the spiritual and temporal well-being of the parish.

I, of course, ask that you continue to pray for peace in Ukraine. Sadly, I must also ask that you pray for the victims of the mass shootings over the past weekend in Buffalo, NY and Laguna Woods, CA, concerning which the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops commented:

> "The U.S. bishops join with others throughout the country in offering prayers for the support and healing of the families, friends, and communities of those impacted by these violent incidents. We pray especially for those who were injured and particularly for those who lost their lives. The bishops again call for an honest dialogue rooted in Christ in addressing the persistent evil of racism in our country. The Catholic Church has been a consistent voice for rational yet effective forms of regulation of dangerous weapons, and the USCCB continues to advocate for an end to violence, and for the respect and dignity of all lives."
