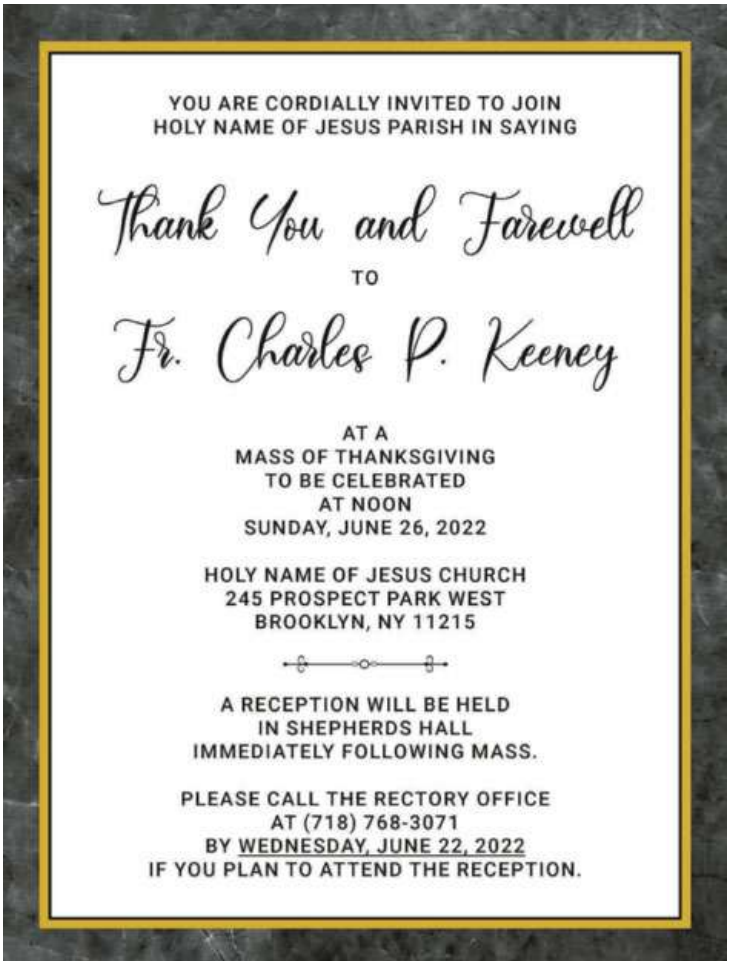
SUNDAY ROSARY AT HNJ

Please note that the Sunday Rosary originally scheduled for June 26, 2022 has been canceled. The next Sunday Rosary will take place on July 29.



...In this world I cannot see the Most High Son of God with my own eyes, except for His Most Holy Body and Blood. ~ St. Francis of Assisi

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Last Sunday, I had the privilege of baptizing Thomas Charles Gutekunst, Jr. here in Holy Name of Jesus Church. We welcome Thomas as God's newest Catholic Christian and wish many blessings on him and his loved ones.

As you will read about below, mid to late June is a very busy time in Holy Name of Jesus Parish.

Last Saturday, Park Slope Performing Arts and the Buckley School of Irish Dance each put on two end-of-year shows in Shepherds Hall. The well-trained performers ranged in age from PreK to late teens. Many are from HNJ parish, from our Religious Education Program, or from our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy (SJWCA). Shepherds Hall was filled with justifiably proud and enthusiastically-supportive parents, grandparents and other loved ones. The shows were great! Congratulations to all involved.

Last Saturday evening, HNJ's Cub Scout Pack 237 had its annual Camp Fire/Awards ceremony, and its overnight camp out in Our Lady's Field. They also attended the 7:30 Mass on Sunday morning. It was my privilege to offer a blessing at the campfire, to congratulate the award recipients, and to thank the adult Scout leaders for the time they devote all year to make Scouting possible here at HNJ.

This is Graduation Week for the Eighth-grade students at SJWCA, with the Graduation Mass on June 16 and the Graduation itself on June 17. The graduates' names will appear in next week's bulletin, but we will take this opportunity to offer advance congratulations to them, their families and loved ones, SJWCA Academy Principal Stephanie Germann, Board Chair Christopher Artz, and the faculty and staff.

This Sunday, June 19, is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi). We will have a brief Corpus Christi procession at the end of the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday.

This Sunday is also Father's Day and we will have a special blessing at each of the Masses. Happy Father's Day to all fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, uncles and all those me who assist in the role of father in our children's lives.

This weekend (June 18/19) is also the weekend of the Summer Mission Appeal. Msgr. John Boyle, a missionary priest in Guatemala for over 40 years, will speak at all of our weekend Masses. Please be as generous as you can in this weekend's Second collection.

June 19 is also the last Sunday of classes for our 2021/2022 Religious Education (Sunday School, CCD) Program. I want to thank our Coordinator of Religious Education, Kathryn Sisto, and our catechists for their dedication in teaching our public school and non-Catholic private school students about our faith and preparing them to receive the Sacraments. By the way, registration is now open for the 2022/2023 semester. Please see the notice on Page 5 for more details.

Thursday, June 23 is the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. Friday, June 24 is the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Saturday, June 25, is the Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. These three days would be especially good ones to join us for our 9 a.m. Mass. We have Eucharistic Adoration and the Rosary after the Mass on Thursday, the Litany of the Sacred Heart of Jesus after the Mass on Friday, and the Rosary after the Mass on Saturday.

The Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is also World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests. Please pray for all priests.

The still-new Federal Holiday of Juneteenth Day will be observed on Monday, June 20. It commemorates the liberation on June 19, 1865 (two and a half years after the Emancipation Proclamation!) of the last group of African Americans enslaved by the Confederacy. The Rectory Office will be closed but we will offer prayers appropriate to the Holiday at our 9 AM Mass.

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated June 22 through June 29 as Religious Freedom Week. It is a week that includes the memorials and solemnities of several martyrs: Saints Thomas More, John Fisher, John the Baptist, Iranaeus, Peter and Paul. With those martyrs in mind, the USCCB reminds us that "religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all". This is a week when all "Catholics are invited to pray, reflect and act to promote religious freedom".

Please support the Holy Name Girl Scouts June Food Drive in support of our Food Pantry. You will find more information on Page 6.

Also: please remember that the 12 Noon Mass on Sunday, June 26, will be Fr. Keeney's final Mass at Holy Name followed immediately (i.e., at about 1 p.m.) by a Farewell Reception in Shepherds Hall. We hope as many of you as possible can join us. Please RSVP to the Rectory Office by Wednesday, June 22 if you plan to attend the reception.

Looking More Closely at the Word

THE SACRAMENT OF ABIDING PRESCENCE

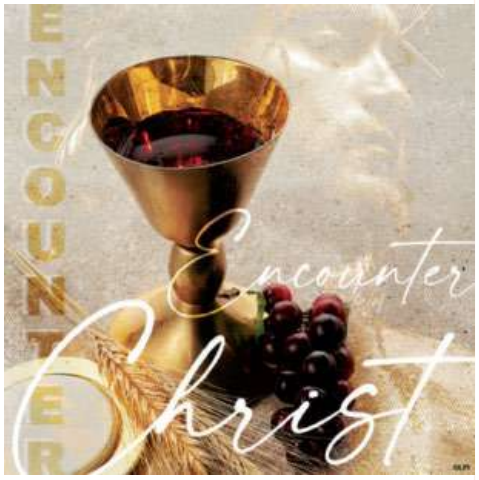
by Br. John-Marmion Villa

Imagine this: you've been waiting a long time to attend a conference with a speaker whom you admire. You've paid the registration, made your travel plans, settled into your hotel, and now you've taken your seat among many others, ready to listen, learn, and be inspired. You are ready to take notes, and you even snap a quick selfie so you can post your attendance to your social accounts, hoping to get some likes and comments. After some dazzling videos and introductions, the presentation begins with some jaw-dropping demonstrations — miracles — for which there are no real explanations, just amazement. Then, a break. You take 15 minutes to walk around and get a fresh cup of coffee, add two French Vanilla creamers and stir, just the way you like it. And you re-take your seat, coffee in hand, eagerly anticipating the next session. A meal is served — a simple one at that. Then, the conference day is over. And you head home.

If you are like me, you'd be thinking that this conference was a waste of time! The time and money invested wasn't worth the show and the food. There wasn't even a swag bag to take home or a merch table there to buy resources! I suspect that many of us have a similar mindset when we approach the Eucharist.

The late-Archbishop Harry Flynn would begin the celebration of Mass by inviting us to become aware of "our need" for God's forgiveness and mercy. My need. What needs do I bring with me to Mass? Certainly, there are family concerns, country and global concerns, community concerns, job concerns, health concerns, financial concerns, etc. As I've gotten older, I don't think that these were the needs he was talking about. The needs I have deal more with my 'soul-sickness' than anything else. These (aka, sin) involve those private, interior battles of doubt, lust, insecurity, abandonment, anger, worry, boredom, bitterness, powerlessness, gluttony, greed, judgment, and condemnation, apathy … all sorts of symptoms that keep us incurvatus in se — curved inwards towards ourselves — as St. Augustine would say. Rather than go to Jesus with our needs, we think that we have to fix ourselves with all the modern self-help approaches available to us … or sometimes, we deny there's a need altogether through fear or ignorance! But these human remedies lack the genuine power to heal a soul-sickness, which only Jesus' presence can. Only a brief review of the Gospels reminds us what happens every time Jesus appears on the scene: people are healed, sicknesses are cured, and evidence of Jesus' Kingdom is believed.

So, our needs — whatever they may be, no matter how grievous or many there are — become the offering that we bring each time we come to Mass. The verbs in the Gospel text then show us what Jesus does with our meager offerings (symbolized by the loaves). Jesus "takes" the loaves — the curse of sin away from us through his cross, he "blesses" them — with divine adoption into the family of God through faith and baptism, he "breaks" them — through instruction and experience and prayer that our ways aren't his ways, and then "gives" them to the disciples for distribution — so we can share with others how our lives have been changed by Jesus.



SUNDAY'S READINGS

First: Genesis 14:18-20

Second: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17

The Eucharist — his body, blood, soul, and divinity — then, is the sacrament of Jesus' abiding presence within us. He is with us in our need. We are aware of this mystery only in faith, with the spiritual eyes of a pure heart. We are not left abandoned or orphaned to figure out this messy life according to our own whims and fascinations. He gently tethers himself to us in the Eucharist, so our sorrows are his, our tribulations and trials are his, our joys are his. Our life becomes his life because his life courses within our souls. So, the Eucharist is not an event we attend or a commodity we consume, but the mystery of a Person we encounter that brings peace into the senseless and broken world in which we find ourselves today.

Holy Name of Jesus Invites you to A Special Lecture Series

"Who is Jesus Christ?"

hosted by

Fr. John P. Cush, STD

Professor of Dogmatic Theology at Saint Joseph's Seminary

Wednesdays,
7 p.m. to 8:15 p.m.
June 22, and July 6, 13, & 20

Via Zoom

These sessions will introduce you to an investigation of the ultimate question posed by Our Lord Jesus: "Who do you say that I am?" Following a study of who Jesus is biblically, historically, and magisterially, Fr. Cush will begin to examine why these theological distinctions matter in terms of our prayer and pastoral ministry in the Church.

Please call the Rectory Office at (718) 768-3071 by Noon, Tuesday, June 14 to request a Zoom invitation

HOLY NAME FOOD PANTRY

SERVING THE COMMUNITY SINCE 1987

The Pantry will distribute food from the Rectory Basement:

SUMMER STOCK AT THE HNJ FOOD PANTRY

THE MONTH OF JUNE 2022 - PLEASE DONATE

The Girl Scouts of Holy Name are helping secure donations of non-perishable foods for our Food Pantry for the summer months. Holy Name's Food Pantry typically has a decrease in needed food donations from now through the Fall, leaving the Pantry with low inventories to distribute to our Patrons. To address this issue, the Girl Scouts started Summer Stock at the Food Pantry last year through Samantha's Bronze Award project.

We are again inviting you to be extra generous during the month of June. We will gratefully accept your donations of boxes of cereal, tomato/pasta sauce, 1 or 2 pound boxes of rice, Progresso canned soups, cooking oil, bottled juices and individualized size V8 juice, Water, and cans of soda that do not need refrigeration, coffee and tea.

You can participate in the food drive by dropping off your donations, into Food Pantry baskets in the rear of the Church, on weekends, or you may donate by arranging to have the donations sent to: Holy Name of Jesus Rectory, 245 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, NY 11215 from the local or online grocery store of your choice.

Thank-you for taking the time to read about the help our food pantry needs at this time.
