A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

I'll begin by reminding everyone that Fr. Charles Keeney will preside at our 12 p.m. Mass this Sunday. It will be a Mass of Thanksgiving and Farewell to Fr. Charlie as he begins his retirement and departs for Florida. There will be a reception in Shepherds Hall immediately after the Mass (i.e., starting about 1:15 p.m.). We hope as many of you as possible can join us.

Once again, we congratulate the members of the Class of 2022 who graduated from our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy on June 17 and whose names are listed elsewhere in this bulletin. We also congratulate the young "graduates" from the Academy's PreK-3, PreK-4, and Kindergarten Programs who had their Stepping Up ceremonies on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Congratulations and thanks also to their parents, grandparents and other loved ones; and to the Academy's administration, board, faculty, and staff for all they have done for these children.

It was my pleasure to offer a special Father's Day blessing at last weekend's Masses for all fathers, grandfathers, uncles, godfathers and all men who help in the role of father. Thank you and God bless you all.

Thank you also for your attention and generosity to Msgr. John Boyle, the Brooklyn native who has served for 40 years as a priest and pastor in Guatemala and who spoke at all of last weekend's Masses as part of the Propagation of the Faith's Summer Mission Appeal.

As Religious Freedom Week comes to an end with the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul on June 29, we keep in mind the U. S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' observation that "religious freedom allows the Church and all religious communities to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all."

I'll devote the rest of this note to the National Eucharistic Revival.

Our Bishop Robert Brennan has asked pastors to advise everyone that the three-year National Eucharistic Revival officially began on Corpus Christi Sunday, June 19, 2022. Bishop Brennan asked that everyone be directed to a YouTube link (youtube.com/watch?v=dT08cbavkBw) to watch his brief message to the faithful of Brooklyn and Queens about the Revival. Please view the Bishop's message as soon as you can.

Your attention is also directed to the website eucharisticrevival.org which has been set up as a central source of information about the Revival, and to an excellent news release on the subject recently issued by the Archdiocese of Chicago. As that news release explains:

"The National Eucharistic Revival officially begins on Corpus Christi Sunday, June 19. The Revival is a three-year initiative sponsored by the USCCB to form, heal, convert, and unite the People of God through a renewed encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist and then to send them out to a hurting and hungry world. The Revival's focus on formation and missionary discipleship begins at the grassroots level in individual parishes and dioceses along with other Catholic institutions:

Year One is the Year of Diocesan Revival in which U.S. bishops respond to the Lord's personal invitation and empower their priests and parish leaders to host events with a Eucharistic focus.

Year Two is planned as the Year of Parish Revival. Individual pastors will engage their staff and parishioners with community-specific activities and events to better understand and enter more deeply into the Paschal Mystery through the celebration of the Mass, and extended opportunities for Adoration and Reconciliation.

Year Three will be the Year of the National Eucharistic Congress and Missionary Sending and commences with a National Eucharistic Congress set to take place July 17-21, 2024, in Indianapolis."

The Frequently Asked Questions section of the eucharisticrevival.org website reminds us of the Church's current challenges. For example:

- "30 percent of Catholics have not returned to the pews post-pandemic";
- "recent data reveals that the majority of Mass-going Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist";

  and
- "40 percent [of the millennial generation are] now self-identifying as unaffiliated with any religion".

The website goes on to boldly assert that "The goal of the National Eucharistic Revival is to engage every Catholic in the United States! This is a movement, not a program, and is meant to provide opportunities for the faithful to fall deeper in love with Jesus in the Eucharist and to be inspired and equipped to share that love with others."

Please pray for the success of the Eucharistic Revival and be attentive to future announcements as more details become known. Please also continue to pray for peace in the Ukraine and for a reduction in gun violence in our great nation.

Looking More Closely at the Word

LIVING THE GOSPEL IN A SECULAR WORLD

by Douglas Sousa, S.T.L.

Putting our faith into action is the challenge of every believer. We are pulled between making time for prayer and good works on the one hand and raising a family and holding down a job on the other. It is difficult to pray the rosary or study the Bible when supper needs to be prepared, the kids need a ride to soccer practice or when we have to work overtime on a project. It is difficult to keep our minds focused on the kingdom of God when so many other demands are made on our time and energy.

Nonetheless, Jesus calls us to love him no matter what the circumstances of our life may be. We are to give ourselves totally in his service whether we are a priest or parking lot attendant, nun, or nurse.

This Sunday's readings give us some important clues on how to balance the practice of our faith with the demands of life in the 21st century.

In the second reading, Saint Paul reminds us to "serve one another through love." Love is the calling of every Christian. It makes everything we do pleasing to God. By adding a little love, we can take whatever we're doing and make it an opportunity to serve Jesus. When we offer our thoughts, words, and actions up to God in love, then the demands of job and family no longer get in the way of our life of faith, but actually help us to grow closer to God and others. They become opportunities for prayer as we draw on the power of his Spirit to enable us to love as he does.

The gospel reading gives us another clue. Jesus tells one of the men who wishes to follow him, "The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." Jesus had no permanent place in this world. It is a reminder to us that we have no permanent home here either. Our final destination is heaven. We are not meant to get too comfortable here on earth. Whether we have been blessed with abundance or are struggling to get by, our homes and possessions are not ours to keep. Remembering that helps keep our work in perspective. We are called to something greater than the status and prestige that money promises.

Finally, we must be always ready to serve the needy around us. In today's gospel, two of the people who approach Jesus have excuses for not following him. But Jesus did not have time to wait around for them. It was "now or never." How many times have we used the demands of family life or of our job as an excuse not to practice charity? Jesus tells us very plainly that when we fail to feed the hungry or give drink to the thirsty, it is really him whom we are ignoring. Are our heads buried so deeply in the details of our everyday lives that we miss Jesus when he passes by? If we are to become holy in the 21st century we must not let our busy schedules be an excuse for not doing good.

We do not have to give up on the hope of becoming saints because we have jobs and families. By offering our work up to God in love, by not valuing the accumulation of wealth too highly and by not allowing our busy lives to be an excuse to overlook the needs of others, we can discover a sure path to holiness in our everyday lives.

Holy Name of Jesus Invites you to A Special Lecture Series

"Who is Jesus Christ?"

hosted by

Fr. John P. Cush, STD

Professor of Dogmatic Theology at Saint Joseph's Seminary

3 Sessions Remaining!

Wednesdays,
7 p.m. to 8:15 p.m.
July 6, 13, & 20

Via Zoom

These sessions will introduce you to an investigation of the ultimate question posed by Our Lord Jesus: "Who do you say that I am?" Following a study of who Jesus is biblically, historically, and magisterially, Fr. Cush will begin to examine why these theological distinctions matter in terms of our prayer and pastoral ministry in the Church.

Please call the Rectory Office

THIS WEEK'S REFLECTION

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

June 27— Everyone needs a mother's love: Saint Cyril of Alexandria died on this day in 444. He is remembered for many things—admittedly not all of them good—as the archbishop of his city, which was at the height of its influence over the Mediterranean world during his time. One of his most enduring legacies was his hard-fought teaching on Mary as the "Mother of God," which created the basis for all other theology about Mary.

Saints aren't perfect, and neither was Cyril—the man who helped connect us to a tender, loving mother in Mary also committed acts of violence and injustice. Perhaps his deep flaws illustrate just how much all of us—even saints who champion Mary—need her intercession. ©TakeFiveForFaith.com

"...Just as by melting two candles together you get one piece of wax, so, I think, one who receives the Flesh and Blood of Jesus is fused together with Him by this Communion and the soul finds that he is in Christ and Christ is in him." - St. Cyril of Alexandria

SUMMER STOCK AT THE HNJ FOOD PANTRY - JUNE 2022 - PLEASE DONATE

The Girl Scouts of Holy Name are helping secure donations of non-perishable foods for our Food Pantry for the summer months. Holy Name's Food Pantry typically has a decrease in needed food donations from now through the Fall, leaving the Pantry with low inventories to distribute to our Patrons. To address this issue, the Girl Scouts started Summer Stock at the Food Pantry last year through Samantha's Bronze Award project.

We are again inviting you to be extra generous during the month of June. We will gratefully accept your donations of boxes of cereal, tomato/pasta sauce, 1 or 2 pound boxes of rice, Progresso canned soups, cooking oil, bottled juices and individualized size V8 juice, Water, and cans of soda that do not need refrigeration, coffee and tea.

You can participate in the food drive by dropping off your donations, into Food Pantry baskets in the rear of the Church, on weekends, or you may donate by arranging to have the donations sent to: Holy Name of Jesus Rectory, 245 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, NY 11215 from the local or on-line grocery store of your choice.

Thank-you for taking the time to read about the help our food pantry needs at this time.
