A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

I was away much of this past week at a convocation of priests from the Brooklyn Diocese with our Bishop Robert Brennan. Please pray for your priests and our Bishop.

As previously announced, we are launching FORMED at our Masses this weekend (October 1/2). Please see my letter on the next two pages of this Bulletin describing how FORMED is a content-filled platform that "offers the Catholic Faith on demand" in an easy-to-use online environment. FORMED can be easily accessed on laptops, iPads, smartphones and other web-connected devices. We're inviting you to bring your smartphones to Mass this weekend where knowledgeable parishioners will be available to help you sign on to FORMED.

Tuesday, October 4, is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Deacon Gerry Devine will bless pets on Sunday, October 2 at 1:30 p.m. and again on Tuesday, October 4 at 6:30 p.m. Both blessing ceremonies will take place in the Howard Place School Yard.

October, a month dedicated to Our Blessed Mother Mary, is a month in which the Church especially encourages praying the Rosary. October 7 is the Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary. We recite the Rosary at Holy Name after the 9 a.m. Mass each weekday morning, and the 9 a.m. Mass and the Rosary are livestreamed on our Facebook page Monday through Friday. Please join us for Mass and the recitation of the Rosary in Church, or on our Facebook page. If you can't join us, please try to say a few private Rosaries during October.

October is also respect Life Month, and Sunday, October 2 is Respect Life Sunday. During October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. As Catholics, we should "live the Gospel of Life" by cherishing, defending, and protecting those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. In observance of Respect Life Month, Deacon Gerry Devine will preside at a Holy Hour for Life in HNJ Church at 3 p.m. on Sunday, October 16.

Archbishop William Lori, Chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Pro-Life Activities, recently issued a statement entitled "Building a Culture of Life in a Post-Roe World", the full text of which is available on the Internet. The USCCB offered the following commentary, including excerpts from the Archbishop's statement:

"Archbishop Lori invites Catholics to 'practice radical solidarity and unconditional love' for pregnant and parenting mothers. The Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health this past June returned the responsibility of limiting abortion from the judiciary to the legislature. For those of us who have prayed for this moment to arrive, says Archbishop Lori, 'it is the time for a renewal and rededication of our efforts to build a culture of life and civilization of love.' He [Lori] explains that 'justice requires that the basic protections of the law against violence be extended to the preborn child' while explaining that building 'a world in which all are welcome requires not only justice, but compassion, healing, and above all, unconditional love.' Moving from law to culture, Archbishop Lori asks Catholics to 'shift the paradigm to what Saint Pope John Paul II described as 'radical solidarity,' making the good of others our own good, including especially mothers, babies (born and unborn), and families throughout the entire human lifespan."

Looking More Closely at the Word

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WISH FOR BY TRACY EARL WELLIVER, MTS

You've probably heard the phrase "Be careful what you wish for." In my experience, it's not often utilized with a lot of charity. You usually hear it said as a warning. The unspoken sentiment behind it is this: You're not as strong as you think you are.

As Christians we shouldn't be surprised to look ourselves in the mirror and own that reality. We are not as strong as we may think. We are time and time again shocked and dismayed by our own weaknesses, our own fears, our own shortcomings. Should we be careful what we wish for? The apostles asked Jesus to increase their faith, and He told them it would take work. It would take suffering. It would take patience. But He didn't say it was impossible.

As everyday stewards, we need to continue wishing recklessly. Ask God for anything and everything, come to Him with all your needs. Beg Him for grace without limit. When we hear God's voice, it does not always say what we want to hear. But it always speaks the perfect truth. If it tells us of a hardship that we think we cannot bear, let us take solace in the knowledge that we are the stewards — not the landlord. ©LPI

September 2022

Dear Parishioners of Holy Name,

The current Eucharistic Revival emphasizes the importance of attending Mass in person (especially on Sundays) because the Eucharist is, of course, the “source and summit of Christian life.” While never losing sight of that reality, the Church continues to encourage Catholics to use new tools to grow in their faith in ways that supplement attending Mass and more traditional in-person parish devotional and instructional activities.

We are very pleased to advise you that, as part of a multi-parish Diocesan initiative, Holy Name of Jesus Parish now has a subscription to FORMED, a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books, and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 highly-reputable sources, including the Augustine Institute and Ignatius Press, with material that is professionally produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Much of FORMED’s content is available in both English and Spanish.

FORMED is easy to access using the simple instructions that appear below. No passwords are required. You can enjoy FORMED on your computer, tablet, cell phone, or even on your television with an inexpensive Roku device or Apple TV. Best of all, this material is free to you. FORMED offers content on the sacraments, saints, faith formation, and a wide range of other topics of interest to Catholics. It has content for children, and movies the whole family can enjoy. FORMED really does offer “the Catholic faith on demand” in a convenient online environment.

We hope that you will sign on to FORMED and begin to access its vast content in ways that will enrich your faith. We will also be making recommendations to assist you in that effort.

May God bless you and your loved ones,

Fr. Larry Ryan

Estimados feligreses del Santo Nombre (Holy Name),

El corriente Renacimiento Eucarístico nos enfatiza la importancia de asistir a Misa en persona (especialmente los domingos) debido a que la Eucaristía es, de hecho, la "fuente y la cumbre de nuestra vida Cristiana". Mientras nunca perder de vista esa realidad, la Iglesia continúa alentando a los Católicos que usen nuevas herramientas para crecer en su fe de maneras que suplementan la asistencia a la Misa, y más actividades instructivas y tradicionalmente devocionales en persona en nuestra parroquia.

Es nuestro placer de avisarles que ustedes, como parte de una iniciativa Diocesana, la cual, se compone de varias parroquias, nuestra parroquia del Santo Nombre de Jesús (Holy Name of Jesus), ahora tiene una suscripción a FORMED (traducido: en Español: FORMADO), una plataforma en línea, llena de 4,000 estudios Católicos, películas, charlas, libros electrónicos y hasta muñequitos para niños. FORMED tiene un contenido de sobre 60 fuentes de alta reputación, incluyendo al Instituto de San Agustín y de Ignatius Press (la prensa de Ignacio) con materiales que son profesionalmente producidos, atractivos y sólidos en su catecismo. Una gran parte del contenido de FORMED está disponible en Inglés y en Español.

FORMED es muy fácil para acceder usando las simples instrucciones que aparecen a bajo. No se necesitan contraseñas. Pueden disfrutar de FORMED, a través de su computadora, tableta, celular o hasta en su televisor con un barato dispositivo de Roku o un Apple TV. Para más, todo estos materiales son de gratis. FORMED ofrece contenidos sobre los sacramentos, santos, la formación de fe y una amplia variedad de otros temas de interés a personas Católicas. Tiene un contenido para niños y películas para que toda la familia, puedan disfrutar. FORMED, realmente ofrece "la fe Católica a través de la computadora en línea" en un ambiente muy conveniente.

Esperamos que se inscriban en FORMED y comiencen a acceder sus contenidos tan enorme en maneras que les enriquece su fe. Nosotros también estaremos haciendo recomendaciones para asistirle en sus esfuerzos.
