September 11 is the 21st Anniversary of the Terrorist Attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. The Anniversary falls on a Sunday this year, so we will use the Sunday Mass prayers and readings. We will, however, remember the 9/11 Victims at all of our Masses that day.

Members of local NY Fire Department companies will join us for the Noon Mass on September 11.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Welcome back to all who are returning from late summer vacations, and to all students returning to school. The parish year runs from September 1 to August 31, so I guess I can wish us all a "Happy New Year!" This is still the first year of the three-year Eucharistic Revival that began last Spring. Especially in view of the Revival, this will be a year when we will try to focus more on the spiritual, while maintaining our necessary attention to the temporal needs of the parish.

On Tuesday, September 7, I said a special Mass for the great administration, faculty and staff of our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy. I used the prayers for the Mass of the Holy Eucharist and preached about how important it is for all Catholics—especially Catholic educators—to maintain our belief in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. I also spoke about how we can put that belief into action by attending Mass regularly (especially on Sundays), receiving Holy Communion frequently (preceded by Confession if necessary), and by living our lives the way Jesus wants us to live them. We had a brief period of Eucharist Adoration after Mass. I describe the faculty Mass in some detail here because all in the parish will be hearing more about these themes, and hopefully have more opportunities for Eucharistic Adoration, as the parish year continues.

Please see the item on the second page of this bulletin describing how we will observe the 21st Anniversary of the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon at our Masses this weekend.

Sunday, September 18, is Catechetical Sunday, which is also the opening Sunday of our parish Religious Education (RE) program. At our 10:30 Mass, we will welcome our returning and new RE students and have a special blessing for our RE teachers, who are officially known as “Catechists”. They are volunteers and it is their generous donation of their time and talent that makes the program possible.

The 10:30 Mass on September 18 will also serve as the Opening Mass for the 2022/2023 Parish Year. We plan to have increased participation by altar servers and our Lay Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. We also plan to conclude the Mass with a brief Eucharistic procession inside the Church in connection with the Eucharistic Revival. Traditionally, the 10:30 Sunday Mass has been the Family Mass at Holy Name, and we want to continue that tradition in this new parish year. The Mass is of course for everyone, but we especially invite families to attend our 10:30 Mass on September 18, and hopefully throughout the year.

On a temporal note: elsewhere in the bulletin, you will see the chart showing that, as of August 29, we were still more than $18,000 and 49 donors behind where we were with last year’s Annual Catholic Appeal. These are significant shortfalls in both dollars and donors. If you have not yet made a pledge, please do so now. There are still pledge cards and envelopes on the tables in the rear of the Church. Every pledge is important and no pledge is too small. Thank you and God bless you for your generosity.

Looking More Closely at the Word

RISE, AND GO TO YOUR FATHER

by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

“If you pull into my driveway and honk, you better be dropping off a package, because you're sure not picking anything up.”

I first read these words in the pages of W. Bruce Cameron’s “8 Simple Rules for Dating my Teenage Daughter,” (that’s Rule No. 5, by the way).

There’s a certain respect that is shown by someone who takes the time to come to the door, ring the bell and wait to be greeted. Being willing to go through the niceties for the sake of appearances is a small act of deference on the part of the person doing the picking-up, even if it’s not for a date. Without it, the whole scenario becomes entitled.

I want you to think of something that you want or need, but do not have. Is it peace? Is it financial stability? Is it strength? Is it friendship?

The brother of the prodigal son had a lot of unexpressed desires. He sees his brother heaped with gifts and favors, feasting on the fattened calf, and he is enraged. I haven’t been given half of that, he thinks, and I’ve worked so hard.

But for all his faithfulness, one has to wonder — did this son ever simply ask for what he needed? Did he get out of the car, so to speak, and ring the bell? Or did he sit in the driveway leaning on the horn?

God wants us to come before Him. He wants us to ask. He wants us to be like Moses — sure enough of our Father’s indulgence to boldly ask for it. Think again about what you need but do not have, and ask yourself: Have I approached the door and rung the bell?
