A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Our 10:30 a.m. Parish Year Opening Mass last Sunday was a great success. It included blessings for two groups of people very important to our parish life. The first group included our Catechists — our Religious Education teachers who volunteer so much of their time and talent to teaching the Catholic Faith to our public and non-Catholic private school children. The second group included Michael Nilsen, Paul Poulos, and Robert Terry, who were commissioned and blessed as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. (Edwin Arguera was commissioned as an EMHC and blessed earlier that day as our 9 a.m. Spanish Mass.) We thank both groups and we encourage others to consider helping in these important ministries.

Please see my letter on the next two pages of this bulletin announcing the upcoming launch of FORMED, a content-filled platform that "offers the Catholic Faith on demand" in an easy-to use online environment.

Also please see the item on the second page of this bulletin about the Blessing of the Animals in the Howard Place School Yard at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 2 and 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, October 4.

Pope Francis has designated this Sunday, September 25, as the "World Day for Migrants and Refugees". It is also the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C), the Sunday when our Gospel includes the parable about the indifference of the Rich Man towards the poor man named Lazarus. Both men died and the Gospel tells us that the poor man Lazarus "was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham" whereas the Rich Man went to "the netherworld where he was in torment". That parable gives each of us much food for thought about how well we live up to our obligations as Catholics to care for those in need. On September 25, Pope Francis wants to focus the Church's and the world's attention particularly on the needs of migrants and refugees, a very controversial subject at this time in our own nation and in nations throughout the world. The Pope closed his Message for this day as follows:

> "Let us build the future today! For the future begins today and it begins with each of us. We cannot leave to future generations the burden of responsibility for decisions that need to be made now, so that God's plan for the world may be realized and his Kingdom of justice, fraternity, and peace may come."

The Pope's words are well worth consideration not only as they pertain to helping to meet the needs of migrants and refugees, but also as to their relevance to the broader subject of contemporary relationships between the rich and the poor.

Looking More Closely at the Word

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become "all about me," preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are "useful" to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as "the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges." In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel "entitled" to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First: Amos 6:1a, 4-7

Second: 1 Timothy 6:11-16

Gospel: Luke 16:19-31

Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important. "The things that we love tell us what we are (attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas)." Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there.

Dear Parishioners of Holy Name,

The current Eucharistic Revival emphasizes the importance of attending Mass in person (especially on Sundays) because the Eucharist is, of course, the "source and summit of Christian life." While never losing sight of that reality, the Church continues to encourage Catholics to use new tools to grow in their faith in ways that supplement attending Mass and more traditional in-person parish devotional and instructional activities.

We are very pleased to advise you that, as part of a multi-parish Diocesan initiative, Holy Name of Jesus Parish now has a subscription to FORMED, a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books, and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 highly-reputable sources, including the Augustine Institute and Ignatius Press, with material that is professionally produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Much of FORMED's content is available in both English and Spanish.

FORMED is easy to access using the simple instructions that appear below. No passwords are required. You can enjoy FORMED on your computer, tablet, cell phone, or even on your television with an inexpensive Roku device or Apple TV. Best of all, this material is free to you. FORMED offers content on the sacraments, saints, faith formation, and a wide range of other topics of interest to Catholics. It has content for children, and movies the whole family can enjoy. FORMED really does offer "the Catholic faith on demand" in a convenient online environment.

We hope that you will sign on to FORMED and begin to access its vast content in ways that will enrich your faith. We will also be making recommendations to assist you in that effort.

May God bless you and your loved ones,

Fr. Larry Ryan

Estimados feligreses del Santo Nombre (Holy Name),

El corriente Renacimiento Eucaristico nos enfatiza la importancia de asistir a Misa en persona (especialmente los domingos) debido a que la Eucaristia es, de hecho, la "fuente y la cumbre de nuestra vida Cristiana". Mientras nunca perder de vista esa realidad, la Iglesia continua alentando a los Catolicos que usen nuevas herramientas para crecer en su fe de maneras que suplementan la asistencia a la Misa, y mas actividades instructivas y tradicionalmente devocionales en persona en nuestra parroquia.

Es nuestro placer de avisarles que ustedes, como parte de una iniciativa Diocesana, la cual, se compone de varias parroquias, nuestra parroquia del Santo Nombre de Jesus (Holy Name of Jesus), ahora tiene una suscripcion a FORMED (truducido: en Espanol: FORMADO), una plataforma en linea, llena de 4,000 estudios Catolicos, peliculas, charlas, libros electronicos y hasta munequitos para ninos. FORMED tiene un contenido de sobre 60 fuentes de alta reputacion, incluyendo al Instituto de San Agustin y de Ignatius Press (la prensa de Ignacio) con materiales que son profesionalmente producidos, atractivos y solidos en su catecismo. FORMED es muy facil para acceder usando las simples instrucciones que aparecen a bajo. No se necesitan contrasenas.
