THE SOLEMNITY OF MARY,
THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

January 1, 2023

All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them
by the shepherds.

And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart.

A NOTE FROM FR LARRY

Our bulletin company's Holiday printing schedule requires that this be a short note that I'm writing on Thursday, December 22 for a bulletin to be distributed on or about Sunday, January 1, 2023, the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, and New Year's Day. Christmas will have passed by the time you read this, but I wish anyone whom I may have missed a belated Blessed and Merry Christmas. I must thank the following people and groups of people: the volunteers who worked hard to clean and decorate the Church so beautifully; our Music Director, Ivonne Rojas, the English and Spanish Choirs, and the Ensemble for the hours of practice they put in to provide us with such beautiful music at our Christmas Masses; all of our other volunteers (especially our Lectors, Ministers of Holy Communion, and altar servers); and our parish lay staff, Deacons Gerry Devine and Michael Saez, and our resident priest, Fr. Emmanuel Conduah, for everything that all of these fine people do for me and HNJ parish. I thank all who donated toys for the children served by Catholic Charities and hats and gloves for the clients of ChiPS. And, of course, I thank the parishioners and friends of HNJ parish for your faith and most generous material support during Christmas and throughout the year.

2023 begins with the Solemnity of Mary, the Most Holy Mother of God. We will have our regular schedule of weekend Masses on December 31/ January 1. At 7 p.m. on Monday, January 2, we will have a Traditional Latin Mass for the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus. Tuesday, January 3, is the actual date of our parish's titular feast (the Most Holy Name of Jesus), which we will observe with appropriate prayers at our regular 9 a.m. Tuesday morning Mass. (Please see the previous page for more details.)

Wednesday, January 4 and Thursday, January 5 are, respectively, the Memorials of Elizabeth Ann Seton and John Neumann, who were two great nineteenth century American saints.

A Holy, Happy and Healthy New Year to all!

Looking More Closely at the Word

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

SHE KEPT ALL OF THESE THINGS IN HER HEART

What was my first word? Who was there when I was born? When did I start to walk? Which toys did I play with? What made me cry when I was a baby?"

My oldest has reached the age where she has started to ask questions like this. As she grows up, she is realizing that, in order to understand the world around her, she must first understand herself. This makes her insatiably curious about her own identity, her history — her "origin story," as they say in the movies.

I've got most of it documented either in writing or in photos, but even if it's a detail that wasn't scribbled in a baby book or saved to my digital cloud, it's a memory that I can quickly summon and make real for her as we snuggle and talk about who she was, who she is, and who she may become.

I'm the mom. I have kept all of these things in my heart.

The Blessed Mother knew more about God before opening a book than most of us could discover after a lifetime of study and prayer. There is no one whose knowledge of Christ was so intimate, so deep, so simultaneously ordinary and extraordinary, as the human woman who bore him, birthed him, nursed him, raised him and eventually gave him up.

In the way that I can tell my daughter everything there is to know about the part of her life she cannot recall, Mary can tell us everything we need to know about Christ. All we have to do is ask.

Mary kept all of these things in her heart. — Luke 2:19 ©LPI

A CHRISTIAN PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR

Our Father and our God, as we stand at the beginning of this new year we confess our need of Your presence and Your guidance as we face the future.

We each have our hopes and expectations for the year that is ahead of us-but You alone know what it holds for us, and only You can give us the strength and the wisdom we will need to meet its challenges. So help us to humbly put our hands into Your hand, and to trust You and to seek Your will for our lives during this coming year.

In the midst of life's uncertainties in the days ahead, assure us of the certainty of Your unchanging love.

In the midst of life's inevitable disappointments and heartaches, help us to turn to You for the stability and comfort we will need.

In the midst of life's temptations and the pull of our stubborn self-will, help us not to lose our way but to have the courage to do what is right in Your sight, regardless of the cost.

And in the midst of our daily pre-occupations and pursuits, open our eyes to the sorrows and injustices of our hurting world, and help us to respond with compassion and sacrifice to those who are friendless and in need. May our constant prayer be that of the ancient Psalmist: "Teach me, O Lord, to follow your decrees; then I will keep them to the end" (Psalm 119:33).

We pray for our nation and its leaders during these difficult times, and for all those who are seeking to bring peace and justice to our dangerous and troubled world. We pray especially for Your protection on all those who serve in our armed forces, and we thank You for their commitment to defend our freedoms, even at the cost of their own lives. Be with their families also, and assure them of Your love and concern for them.

Bring our divided nation together, and give us a greater vision of what You would have us to be. Your Word reminds us that "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord" (Psalm 33:12).

As we look back over this past year we thank You for Your goodness to us-far beyond what we have deserved. May we never presume on Your past goodness or forget all Your mercies to us, but may they instead lead us to repentance, and to a new commitment to make You the foundation and center of our lives this year.

And so, our Father, we thank You for the promise and hope of this new year, and we look forward to it with expectancy and faith. This I ask in the name of our Lord and Savior, who by His death and resurrection has given us hope both for this world and the world to come.

~ Billy Graham

THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

MEMORIAL OF BASIL THE GREAT & GREGORY NAZIANNZEN

JANUARY 2: SPIRITUALITY IS A FRIENDLY ENDEAVOR —Is there anyone you regard as a "spiritual friend"? Someone with whom you share your Christian journey and who helps you grow in faith? Basil the Great and Gregory Nazianzen were two such friends who were monks together for a while and later both became bishops. They lived in a time—the fourth century—when there was great conflict and heresy, and the pair worked to keep the church united on the right path. Gregory wrote of their friendship: "We seemed to be two bodies with a single spirit ... Our single object and ambition was virtue, and a life of hope in the blessings that are to come ..." If it's true that you are the company you keep, choose wisely!

MEMORIAL OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS

JANUARY 3: THE NAME ABOVE ALL OTHERS — The Most Holy Name of Jesus occurs in early January to signify the eight days since Jesus' birth—when, as a Jew, he was presented in the Temple and given a name. As the Bible reminds us, an angel told Joseph: "You shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." Today is also the main feast day of the Jesuit religious order, as their name derives from Jesus' name. Celebrate as suggested by today's most famous Jesuit, Pope Francis: "It means thinking like him, loving like him, seeing like him, walking like him. It means doing what he did and with his same sentiments."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN NEUMANN

January 5: Live and learn—and pass it on —Education was of supreme importance to both Saint John Neumann (1811-60), who is memorialized today, and to scientist and devout Christian George Washington Carver, who died on Jan. 5, 1943. Both men obtained an education long before it was seen as a birthright. Both made enormous social contributions as a result: Neumann to faith development of the masses; Carver to applied agricultural science impacting the country in numerous ways. For them, cleverness was never an end in itself; they both believed their talents were given by God to serve others. How does your education serve others?
