ARE YOU BEING CALLED TO SERVE?
LAY LITURGICAL MINISTER TRAINING

Lay Liturgical Ministers are members of the laity who are called to serve at Masses, and throughout our faith community, as Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Ushers. These are important ministries for the lifeblood of our parish and our faith, and they offer a meaningful way to actively participate in the Holy Liturgy.

To be a successful candidate, you must:

- ✞ Be at least 16 years old, Catholic, Confirmed, and living a life in accordance with the teachings of our Catholic Faith;
- ✞ Consent to training, and to willingly participate in the ministry with respect, knowledge and reverence;
- ✞ Discuss your qualifications with Fr. Larry, our pastor.

The next training sessions are from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on March 11, 2022 and May 13, 2023, with both English and Spanish tracks available. Registrations will be handled by the Rectory.

For more information, call the Rectory Office at (718) 768-3071, or email HNJ's Coordinator of Lay Liturgical Ministers, Nick Sisto, at: nasisto@verizon.net

SMALL FAITH-SHARING GROUPS
SPRING 2023 LENTEN SEASON BEGINS IN FEBRUARY

FAITH BRINGS US TOGETHER

Formerly meeting under the "Why Catholic?" umbrella, HNJ's faith-sharing groups will gather, either in-person or via Zoom, for six weekly 90-minute sessions per season. The sessions include prayer, Scripture, and voluntary faith-sharing discussion, with a solid foundation in Scripture and Catholic Catechism. Group facilitators will use modules from FORMED, such as "Exploring Forgiveness" and "The Chosen", or other sources, as "themes" for their particular group's discussions.

These small groups have proven to be a valuable part of the spiritual life of the parish for several years, and new participants are always welcome. For additional information, meeting dates / times, etc., please call Diane Larkin at (917)-667-1722 or email her at dml1722@aol.com .

A NOTE FROM FR LARRY

At the beginning last Sunday's 10:30 a.m. Mass, I had the privilege of presiding at the Rite of Acceptance for Nataly Castillo. For the past several months, Nataly has been preparing to enter the Catholic Church. During that time, she has been referred to as an "Inquirer". During last Sunday's brief Rite, Nataly stood before the parish community and formally stated that she wants to become a baptized member of the Catholic Church. The parish assembly affirmed this desire and Nataly became a "Catechumen". We congratulate her and will continue to pray for her as she progresses towards reception of the Sacraments of Baptism, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil.

February 11 was the Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes and World Day of the Sick. This is a good time to remind everyone that we priests are happy to visit homes to bring Confession, Holy Communion, and the Sacrament of the Sick (Anointing) to the homebound (please call the Rectory to make an appointment). Also, please keep in mind that the Sacrament of the Sick is really a sacrament of healing appropriate for administration in a variety of circumstances, including pre-surgery. Please feel free to contact the Rectory or to speak with one of the priests after Mass. We would be happy to arrange for the administration of the Anointing of the Sick for yourselves, neighbors, nearby family, etc..

Congratulations, prayers and blessings for all married couples on World Marriage Day, February 12. Celebrated each year on the second Sunday in February, the day honors husband and wife as head of the family, the basic unit of society. It salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in daily, married life. It began in 1981 in Baton Rouge, LA as a secular observance. In 1993, Pope John Paul II imparted his apostolic blessing on World Marriage Day, and celebrations have spread around — and continue to spread — around the world.

Lent begins on February 22, and our parish's Small Faith-Sharing Groups will again be meeting once a week for the six weeks of Lent. The groups are lay-led and meet for about 90 minutes each week for prayer, scripture reading and voluntary faith-sharing discussion using content from FORMED and other sources. New participants are always welcome. Please contact Diane Larkin at (917)-667-1722 for more details.

February is Black History Month. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has a summary on their web site about the following six Black American Catholics whose Causes for Canonization are underway:

- Venerable Pierre Toussaint (1776-1853), a former slave, philanthropist and founder one of New York's first orphanages. He raised funds to help build New York City's first cathedral, and often risked his life during epidemics to nurse the sick and pray with the dying.
- Servant of God Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange (1784-1882) the foundress and first Superior General of the Oblate Sisters of Providence (1829-1832), the first religious congregation of African American women in the history of the Catholic Church.
- Venerable Henriette Delille (1813-1862) a lifelong citizen of New Orleans, Louisiana, and foundress of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Family. Henriette taught those around her that sanctity can be attained in following the path of Jesus.
- Venerable Fr. Augustus Tolton (1854-1897), a former slave who was baptized, raised Catholic, and became the first openly African American Catholic priest. Fr. Tolton led the development and construction of St. Monica's Catholic Church in Chicago as a Black "National Parish Church".
- Julia Greeley (1833 and 1848-1918), born into slavery in Hannibal, Missouri in the mid-1800s, and freed by Missouri's Emancipation Act in 1865. Julia was an outstanding supporter of Sacred Heart Parish in Denver. The Jesuits who ran the parish considered her the most enthusiastic promoter of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus they had ever seen.
- Sr. Thea Bowman, FSPA (1937-1990), a convert to Catholicism through the inspiration of the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration and the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity who were her teachers and pastors. She is acclaimed as a "holy woman" in the hearts of those who knew and loved her and continue to seek her intercession for guidance and healing.

Please see the USCCB's Subcommittee for African American Affairs site for more information on these outstanding people : https://www.usccb.org/committees/african-american-affairs/road-saint-hood-leaders-african-descent

Looking More Closely at the Word

THE HEART IN YOUR HANDS

by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill." — Matthew 5:17

In my work as a freelance writer, I often find myself producing content on the subject of Catholic schools. For more than ten years, I've written hundreds of articles about Catholic schools, coming at the issue from every angle. I've written about current Catholic school families, and the sacrifices they make to ensure their children receive a Catholic education. I've written about alumni and their feelings about the education they received in a Catholic educational setting. I've written about the importance of Catholic identity in a Catholic school, and the lengths to which teachers and staff members will go to ensure their classrooms aren't offering merely a private education, but a Catholic one.

All this writing — hundreds of thousands of words, if you added it all up, I'm sure — and it all says basically the same thing. It's about the whole person.

In a Catholic school, you're not just going to learn math and science and language arts and all other sorts of things that are good for your intellect, you're going to learn about the Incarnation, about God's plan for you, about salvation history and the Great Commission. You're going to learn about the stuff that's good for your soul.

It's about the whole person.

That's the catchphrase when it comes to Catholic education, but it reflects the Catholic worldview as a whole, and it's a worldview that has its origins in today's Gospel passage, when Christ breaks the bad news that he hasn't come to do away with any rules, but to add one ginormous, supreme, uber-important clause to every existing part of God's law. It's a clause, I think, that can best be expressed in the words of St. Camillus de Lellis, "Put your heart in your hands."

It matters if you have anger in your heart, Christ tells us. It matters if you have lust in your heart. It matters.

It's about the whole person.

Whatever you do, you have your heart in your hands. It doesn't matter if you're offering a sacrifice exactly as the Book of Leviticus dictates it should be offered. Your heart is now in your hands, and if the heart is not pure, neither is the sacrifice. It's the whole-person approach to the law.

It's significant, too, that, when Christ tells us to "be reconciled with your brother" before making an offering to God, he doesn't forget to tell us to make the offering in the end: "and then come and offer your gift." As he said, he's not here to abolish the law. He doesn't care only about what is in our hearts, he cares what our hands are doing, too. The law is still in effect, it matters what you do. But it also matters why you do it. The law now includes the heart.

It's about the whole person.

THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME & WORLD MARRIAGE DAY

February 12 —Create a genuine love story: No one ever said relationships were easy. Commitments, whether in marriage, religious life, or elsewhere, take spiritual insight to discern, patience to maintain, time to mature, and a whole lot of love to keep the engine moving on the tracks. Today's celebration of World Marriage Day is meant to support the development of a culture of life and love within our most fundamental relationships. As Pope Francis declared in Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love): "The welfare of the family is decisive for the future of the world and that of the church." Take the journey to joy and love. Work to make each relationship life-giving.

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL & METHODIUS

February 14 — Speak the language of love: More than 1,000 years before Vatican II—with its directive to translate the Latin liturgy into the vernacular—two missionary siblings, Cyril and Methodius, got the blessing of their pope to do the same for the Slavic people. In doing so, they created the Cyrillic alphabet. And as Pope John Paul II noted, they impacted not only the "history of the church, but also the civil and the political history of a great part of the European continent. . . . Cyril and Methodius [are] not only the apostles of the Slavic peoples but also the fathers of their culture." On this Valentine's Day, how can you translate love into your vernacular?

VENERABLE FR. AUGUSTUS TOLTON

February 15 — A pioneer priest who broke a color barrier: On this day in 1880, Augustus Tolton departed the United States on a holy mission: to enter a Catholic seminary as an African American. After several years of trying to become a priest stateside and experiencing rejection due to racism, Tolton's friends and allies successfully arranged for his passage to study at the Urban College in Rome, where he was ordained as the world's first openly African-American Catholic priest in 1886. He would return to his home state of Illinois, eventually settling in Chicago where he founded the city's first black parish. He died of heat stroke in 1897 at the young age of 43 and has since been on the path to sainthood. In these times of continuing anti-black discrimination, may we look to his witness for hope and sustenance. Venerable Father Tolton, pray for us!

Holy Name's FORMED Pick of the Week

In the Church year, we're in an "in between" season - after Christmas and before Lent. We can take advantage of a broad variety of offerings on FORMED to deepen our faith and our understanding of the Eucharistic Revival. Among many, here are three videos on the Holy Eucharist, each complementing Formed's excellent series "Presence" (https://watch.formed.org/presence/season:1/videos/god-is-with-us):

The first two episodes of Season 2 in the "ECHO with Bishop Donald Hying" series present short, but engaging, meditations on the Eucharist:

1. "The Celebration of the Pascal Mystery of Christ": https://watch.formed.org/echo-with-bishop-donald-hying/season:2/videos/the-celebration-of-the-paschal-mystery-of-christ (4:25 minutes);
2. "The Eucharist: Source and Summit of the Christian Life": https://watch.formed.org/videos/source-and-summit-introducing-the-eucharist (5:42 minutes).

A more substantial presentation on the Eucharist, from the "Faith Seeking Understanding" series, is "The Eucharist": https://watch.formed.org/videos/the-eucharist. (18 minutes) Combining art, architecture, and Scripture, a basic but compelling portrait of the history and meaning of this sacrament is presented by several Formed commentators.
