THIS WEEK'S REFLECTION

Memorial of Louis Grignion de Montfort

April 28 — What's in your wallet? Stored in coin wallets, pockets, purses, jewelry boxes, and glove compartments are many hundreds of little beads. Some are held together by string or wire, others fashioned into metal "decade" rings with laminated instructional cards. No matter what form they take, each reminds us of a special prayer of the Catholic Church, the Rosary.

Saint Louis Grignion de Montfort, known for his love of the Rosary, always made sure to teach people to pray the Rosary in whatever method best helps them enter into the mysteries of the life of Christ. What's your unique way of praying the beads?

*Lord, you will show us
the path of life. - Psalm 16*

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Many thanks to Deacon Gerry Devine for presiding at our simple but prayerful Divine Mercy Holy Hour last Sunday afternoon.

I must update you on our status with the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal. As of April 10, 2023, 48 parishioners or friends of Holy Name had donated $25,300 which is short of our Diocesan Goal of $55,623 and far short of the $123,724 donated during last year's Appeal. There were 188 pledges made during last year's Appeal. Just about all of you know that meeting the Diocesan goal is critically important to supporting the Diocesan programs enumerated elsewhere in this bulletin, many of which benefit Holy Name of Jesus Parish, along with all the other parishes in the Diocese. Most of you also know that the "over Diocesan goal" dollars that we receive back from the Diocese (last year, that number was about $68,000) are critical to our continuing effort to reduce HNJ parish's debt obligation. Many of you have Pledge Envelopes in your house or apartment. Please consider making a pledge, either by using those envelopes, donating on-line, or by text, as described below. As always, thank you very, very much for your generosity.

I will be away from the parish for ten days from April 19 through April 28. I thank Fr. Emmanuel and Monsignor Delendick for covering the Masses for me. While I am away, I and many members of my family will be traveling to Ireland where I will be concelebrating the Mass of Thanksgiving for the Fiftieth Anniversary of my cousin, Fr. James Fleming's, ordination to the priesthood. Fr. Jim is a Columban Father who served many years as a missionary priest and pastor of poor parishes in rural Philippines and Pakistan. His health is good (thank God). Please pray for him and for all priests (including me!) God bless you all. †

A REQUEST FROM HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace." (1 Peter 4:10)

With so much uncertainty in the world, the resolve of our priests and religious, ministers and teachers, and all people of faith has only grown stronger in Brooklyn and Queens, but so have the needs.

More than ever, we need your help to spread the light of Christ to our city and neighbors by giving to the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal. Your participation joins you in faith with others in the Church to do good works during challenging times in new innovative ways:

- Connecting our young people to the Church
- Feeding the hungry
- Visiting the sick and imprisoned
- Giving shelter to the homeless
- Welcoming the stranger
- Caring for the elderly
- Sharing our faith
- Educating the young
- Forming deacons and priests

The work you support with a donation to the Appeal goes beyond the abilities of any one parish while benefiting the faithful in all parishes including Holy Name of Jesus Parish where we use all "over-Diocesan goal" dollars we receive back to reduce our still large debt obligation.

As a committed parishioner, friend, and Catholic, we need your support to uphold our mission. We are grateful to the 48 people who have already made a generous commitment to the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal and we ask others to join them.

Parish Goal: $55,623 Amount Paid thus far: $25,300

You may make your gift online now at annualcatholicappeal.org or text ACA to 917-336-1255 or call 718-965-7375 ext. 1602 and have a pledge card mailed to your home.

Suggested giving amounts:

- $100 pledge
- $200 pledge = $25 a month
- $350 pledge = $10 a week
- $1,200 pledge = $5 a day

Looking More Closely at the Word

THE WAY FORWARD

by Richard Conrad, O.P.

Quite a few Christian artists have depicted the moment of recognition at Emmaus, as Caravaggio did in the masterpiece [at right] now in the National Gallery. Some artists hint that Jesus had a characteristic way of breaking the bread, or saying the blessing over it, and that was what made the disciples recognise him. Caravaggio does this in his other version of the scene, now in Milan. Maybe what in fact made them recognise Jesus was the marks left in his wrists by the nails, which they saw when he stretched out his hands to give them the bread.

Other artists have shown Jesus joining the disciples on the road to Emmaus. There's an example in the National Gallery, by the 16th-Century Altobello Melone. He shows Jesus dressed as a pilgrim: his short tunic is suitable for walking, he carries a pilgrim's staff; there's a pilgrim's badge on his hat.

As they drew near to Emmaus, Jesus "made as if to be going further". The disciples got him to stay with them, but, like Mary Magdalene that morning, they could not keep him with them for long. For Jesus was a pilgrim; he was on a journey, an urgent one; he had to go further. He was the First and the Leader of pilgrims; he was "the pioneer of our salvation", our trail-blazer.

Jesus had to go further; the disciples – that is, we ourselves – must follow him. But, so to speak, we can't keep up with him.

Jesus went further, went ahead, in two ways: That morning, he had told Mary Magdalene, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father". Jesus had to take his glorified human Body out of this cosmos, which is subject to decay, into God's own glory. This was to establish the state of glory that we hope to share when he comes again to take us to be with him where he is, when he comes to transfigure our lowly body after the pattern of his own glorious Body. Jesus did not come back to the old life; he went forward, into a new and higher life, as our "prototype".

We are still on pilgrimage; we need, in a sense, to be like those disciples whose "eyes were kept from recognizing him". While "we walk by faith and not by sight", we cannot cope with seeing Jesus' true glory. But we do have pointers to nourish faith; it's in those pointers that we recognize Jesus. There are the events themselves of Jesus' life, Death and Resurrection, and the witnesses' testimony which has come down to us in Scripture and Tradition. There is the whole body of Scripture, which Jesus the Divine Wisdom helps us understand. There is The Breaking of the Bread, the Holy Eucharist, the great Sign of Jesus' friendship, the way in which the Risen Jesus is with us most powerfully – and, like all Sacraments, it must veil the one it reveals.

Jesus went ahead of his disciples in another way. He went out from Jerusalem into the whole world. The power of his Cross and Resurrection has radiated from Jerusalem throughout all creation. Even those who lived as God's friends before Jesus came, were drawn on their journey of faith and hope, drawn into God's friendship, by the Sacrifice they glimpsed from afar.

Jesus still goes ahead of his disciples into the whole world; the power of his Cross and Resurrection still resonates to draw all humanity to the true God.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First: Acts 2:14, 22-33

Second: 1 Peter 1:17-21

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

The disciples at Emmaus would follow Jesus on that journey into the world. First they had to go back to Jerusalem to re-join Simon Peter and the other Apostles. There the Holy Spirit, the great Gift won for us by Jesus' Sacrifice, would form them into Christ's own Body. Then they would be able to go out and preach the Good News.

Their mission is ours, whether we exercise it by missionary work in the strict sense, or by local forms of ministry – or by prayer in which we hold the whole world before God.

In our mission, we are following Jesus, and he still goes ahead of us. For, as St John Paul suggested in his first Encyclical, Christ marks out the way, the missionary way, the Church must take. We are, each of us, charged in some way to bring the Good News to those who need it, and this is because we are caught up in Christ's own journey to each human being. When we reach anyone, however, we will find that Jesus has got there first, with his Gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus and the Spirit will be there already, awakening the thirst for truth and goodness.

EPISODE 1: SAINT MARK THE EVANGELIST

Just who is St. Mark, the author of this short but action-packed Gospel? Using outside sources, other books of the Bible, and the Gospel itself, Dr. Gray takes a closeup look at St. Mark, and his connection with St. Peter and the Christians of Rome.

CATHOLIC Q & A

CONFIRMATION SPONSORS

Question: What are the requirements for being a Confirmation sponsor?

Answer: Although many dioceses have specific requirements for who can be a sponsor for the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Code of Canon Law identifies certain requirements that are true for all dioceses and parishes. Please note, these requirements also apply to prospective Godparents:

First, the sponsor should be chosen by the one to be Confirmed (or, in some cases, by the parents or even the pastor).

Second, a sponsor must be at least sixteen years old (unless the local bishop has chosen another age, or a special exception has been made).

Third, the sponsor must be Confirmed in the Catholic Church. Beyond this, they must lead "a life of faith in keeping with the function to be taken on."

Fourth, they can have no sort of canonical penalty or impediment.

Finally, they cannot be either the father or mother of the one to be Confirmed (See Canons 893, §1 and 874, §1).

In some cultures, it is customary for one of the Confirmand's Godparents to act as sponsor, although this is not required by Church law.
