A NOTE FROM FR LARRY

Because of a very early printing deadline, I am writing this Note for the Easter Sunday bulletin on Friday, March 31. Still before us are all the powerful liturgies of Holy Week: Psalm Sunday, the Chrism Mass which Diocesan priests will concelebrate with Bishop Brennan on April 4, the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday evening, the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday evening (when Nataly Castillo will receive the sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation) and the Masses on Easter Sunday. The Chrism Mass is mainly for Diocesan priests, but I hope that you will have attended as many of the other liturgies as possible. I thank the many people who have been—and will be—working hard to prepare for them.

Please consider the following item published by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and entitled "What is Easter":

> The Easter Vigil is the "Mother of All Vigils." Easter Sunday, then, is the greatest of all Sundays, and Easter Time is the most important of all liturgical times. Easter is the celebration of the Lord's Resurrection from the dead, culminating in his Ascension to the Father and sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church.
> There are 50 days of Easter from the first Sunday of Easter to Pentecost. It is characterized, above all, by the joy of glorified life and the victory over death, expressed most fully in the great resounding cry of the Christian, Alleluia! The Octave of Easter comprises the eight days, which stretch from the first Sunday of Easter [which is Easter Sunday itself] to the Second Sunday of Easter. It is a way of prolonging the joy of the initial day. In a sense, every day of the Octave is like a little Sunday. The word "Easter" comes from Old English, meaning simply the "east." The sun that rises in the east, bringing light, warmth, and hope, is a symbol for the Christian of the rising Christ, who is the true Light of the world."

Easter is of course a season of great joy, but it comes at a time when our world, our nation and we ourselves faces challenges that may make difficult to experience that joy fully. Given that reality, consider the following brief commentary entitled "From hole to whole":

> "Accounts vary. Sometimes Easter dawns with helpful instruction-bearing angels and a palpable earthshaking. In other narratives it's almost a stealthy affair: a yawning open tomb, the shroud deserted, its meaning unclear. So too we experience the Easters of our lives in a variety of ways: fervent or undecided, joyful or indifferent or possibly even sorrowing. The empty tomb is an invitation to faith, an absence that can be filled any number of ways. We pray for each other this day, that what is empty in any of us may be filled with hope and trust."
> (Prepare the Word, April 9, 2023).

A Happy and Blessed Easter to you and your loved ones! ✞

Looking More Closely at the Word

THE DIFFERENCE IS EASTER

by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

At Easter, we celebrate that our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, conquered death, rose from the dead, and remains very much alive. To the world of non-believers: what!? It is quite a big reality to swallow. But for the believer, it is a reality that inspires us to the point where we find ourselves constantly sharing the Gospel with everyone we meet! Right?

So what does Easter mean to you? The question is not what do you believe. The question is what impact does Easter have on you? How do your actions demonstrate the power of Easter? What does it mean we you hear that we, the Church, are an Easter people?

You may be saying right now that you have no intention of becoming an evangelist, passing out Bibles to all you meet. But I would like to suggest that you actually have a more powerful way of evangelizing others: everyday stewardship. Actions speak louder than words and the way you live your life can be a great testimony to all those you encounter. By acknowledging the gifts you have been given, cultivating those so they grow to an increase, and then sharing them fully with God and with others in God's name will give testimony to your belief that Jesus is alive and seeking a relationship with each of his people.

If more of us won't live our lives in this manner, then non-believers and non-intentional disciples will ask the question, "What difference does Easter make anyway?" Jesus died and rose for you and me. To be sure, it DOES make a difference.
