A NOTE FROM FR LARRY

Last Saturday, I had the privilege of attending the Ordination of long-time Holy Name parishioner Edwin Arguera to the Permanent Deaconate. Edwin's Mass of Thanksgiving and reception at Holy Name on Sunday morning were wonderful events and I thank all involved in planning and helping with them. We were very pleased and grateful to learn that Bishop Robert Brennan has assigned Deacon Edwin to Holy Name.

Last Sunday was Pentecost Sunday, which is one of the two days per year when (other than in emergency situations) ordinary priests like me can administer the Sacrament of Confirmation. At the 12 Noon Mass on Sunday, I had the privilege of confirming Alice Perretti and Jack Buffolano. Alice and Jack had been prepared to receive this important Sacrament by Maryellen Keogh, the Coordinator of our Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) program, which you might be more familiar with under its former name, the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) program. Congratulations to Alice and Jack, to their sponsors and loved ones, and especially to Maryellen Keogh for all her hard work in their behalf.

Monday, May 29, was Memorial Day. I want to recognize the leaders and Scouts of Holy Name of Jesus Parish who, last weekend, in preparation for Memorial Day, planted hundreds of American flags at the graves of members of the Armed Forces killed in action and of Veterans buried in Green-Wood Cemetery.

This Sunday, June 4, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The mystery of the Holy Trinity (in the one true God, there are three distinct persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit) is impossible for us to understand fully. However, love is at the core of that mystery: the mutual love that the Father has for the Son and that the Son has for the Father generates a distinct third divine person, the Holy Spirit. God generously extends that divine love to us. In baptism, we were given a share in the life of God, which is a life of love. The expectation is that we will accept that gift by living up to the two great commandments of love of God and love of neighbor. Trinity Sunday is an opportunity for each of us to consider how well we are doing in living up to that expectation.

On next Sunday, June 11 (the Solemnity of Corpus Christi), we begin the second year of the National Eucharistic Revival. This is the three-year initiative to help Catholics throughout America strengthen and demonstrate their belief in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Here at Holy Name, we will have brief Eucharistic processions at our weekend Masses. Weather-permitting, part of the procession at our 10:30 a.m. Mass will take place outdoors. A bit later in the day (beginning at 1 p.m.), there will be a procession at our Lady of Peace Church, 522 Carrol Street, Brooklyn, NY 11215, to which all the parishes in our Deanery (a group of local parishes) are invited. I plan to attend. I will be leaving Holy Name parking lot at about 12:15 p.m.. Meet me at my car in the priests' parking area behind Holy Name Rectory if you want a ride.

Please see Page 2 in this bulletin for the "Save the Date" for two "Movie Nights @ HNJ" with Fr. John Cush later in June. Fr. Cush is an author, seminary professor and a native son of HNJ parish who is well-known to many in the parish, especially for popular events like these. ✞

Looking More Closely at the Word

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER

by Fr. John Kavanaugh, S.J.

June is traditionally the month to honor the Holy Trinity. It is also, in the United States, the month when fathers are honored. That's an opportune, if delicate, congruence.

I have friends, some men but especially women, who have found it difficult to pray to God as father. The reasons range from the psychological burden of a tyrannical parent to the theological reservation that fatherhood excludes the feminine-maternal in God and suggests the possibility that God is some one-sided initiator, a non-needer who started it all and then exited, indifferent to the drama.

We desperately need this father, strangely so like a mother.

To be sure, there is maternity in God. John Paul I, in his short papacy reminded us that God is not only a father to us, but a mother as well. No doubt he was inspired by passages from the prophets and psalms or feminine references to the Spirit and Wisdom.

But what can be learned, no matter what our culture or history, from the fact that Jesus called God "Father" and that Christians have for centuries praised God in hymn and creed as Father, Son, and Spirit in Trinity?

Despite what the word "God" has meant to various times and cultures—remote creator, unfeeling authority, arbitrary ruler, or a clan of super-beings—in Christianity God is a community of persons.

Mutuality is the source of life. Relationship grounds being. There is otherness from the start.

The doctrine of the Trinity affirms God as loving and knowing, giving and receiving. We profess that God could not be God without the "other" (the Son) and the eternal bond of their relationship (the Spirit).

While some may think that the doctrine of the Trinity is negotiable, it is actually central to our faith. If we lose it, we lose all we are. Moses' personal God, "merciful and gracious, slow to anger, rich in kindness and fidelity," emerges in St. Paul as the interpersonal Trinity that models true human relationship. Thus Paul prays: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Spirit be with you all."

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Yes, God so loved the world that he gave his only son to save the world." Our God, in love for us, offers the dearest—the Son—to be one with us, as one in Trinity. Jesus reveals something not only about God, but about fatherhood. It is an intimate, self-giving relationship.

I wonder if the "Father" of the Trinity is more strategic for humanity than it is for the Trinity? Our problem may not lie so much in what we assign to God as in what many people associate with failed fatherhood.

In our own time we hear of uncaring and abusing fathers, "dead-beat, absent dads," and "fatherless kids." The lost father is lost relationship, broken promise, torn covenant, lost Trinity. The disappearance of fatherhood is the disappearance of intimacy.

But Jesus' Father, nurturing and abiding, comforting and faithful, is radically different, and it would be most unfortunate if we were to ignore his revelation. We desperately need this father, strangely so like a mother.

When parenthood is true, its grace is as deep as it is divine. We are held in being with the other—spouse, father, and mother. How like the Trinity our covenants can be.

Prayer

Trinity of Persons and Loving God, may the rendering and dance of your love live in my soul.

May I have the courage to step aside and allow you to be who you are, giving birth to yourself within me.

Help me to leave the past behind and worry less about what tomorrow may bring so that I can see your presence as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit dancing in, through,
and around me.

Help me see this and be this here and now, in this very moment.

May I pursue less of my own needs and desires and set aside distraction so that I can follow your lead to justice, prudence, temperance and fortitude.

May my eyes and soul be open enough to see your Divine Trinitarian presence resonating and playing in all of creation and in my brothers and sisters.

Amen.
