ANNUAL MISSION APPEAL FROM THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

PRESENTED BY FR. CHARLES P. KEENEY

Every year, the Office of the Propagation of the Faith sends a foreign missionary priest, brother, sister or layman to make an appeal to help one of the many different missionary projects of our church that happen in so many different parts of the globe. This year, the appeal to help a foreign mission will take place at Holy Name Parish on the weekend of August 26 and 27.

This year's appeal will be very different. Instead of having someone from far away come and talk with us, someone very familiar with this parish will make the appeal. Our former resident, Father Charles P. Keeney, will be making the appeal on behalf of sisters who work with very needy children in Tanzania, Africa. As we are aware, Father Charlie helped us with Sunday and weekly Masses, Penance services, and occasional reflections for Lent or Advent. His official ministry when he lived here was the Director of the Mission Office. During his time at Holy Name, he never asked for help with his missionary interest in Arusha, Tanzania. He chose to keep them apart lest there be a conflict of interest.

On August 26 and 27, he will be with us at our regularly scheduled weekend Masses to tell of his work with the Sisters of Saint Gemma Galgani and the work they do with some of the neediest children in the world. His story is very moving. It even moved Bishop DiMarzio to give him the position as Director of the Mission Office!

Please make plans to come and listen to the appeal — and please be ready to make a generous and prayerful response to this year's appeal.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

The National Eucharistic Revival is under the direction of Bishop Andrew Cozzens, who is the Bishop of the Diocese of Crookston, MN and the Chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis. On August 1, Bishop Cozzens was the principal speaker at a national webinar concerning the Revival that was attended by hundreds of clergy, religious, parish leaders and other interested persons.

The bishop's address covered many topics. What I want to focus on in this note is his observation (paraphrasing greatly) that there are two things at the heart of the Revival: encountering Jesus Christ as a person and, after that encounter, going forth on a mission to invite others to encounter Christ, especially in the Eucharist. The bishop dealt in greater depth with the encounter with Jesus Christ. He pointed out that, during Jesus' public ministry, thousands of people saw him perform miracles and heard his preaching, but most were not moved to change their lives. A person who truly encounters Jesus Christ realizes that Jesus is God. Having acknowledged that Jesus is God, the person encountering Jesus realizes and acknowledges that he or she is a sinner who needs to repent. The bishop reminded us of the words of one of the admonitions used on Ash Wednesday: "Repent and believe in the Gospel". The bishop then observed that, simultaneously with the realization of the need for repentance, the person encountering Christ should remember that he or she is a beloved child of God. And finally—after having realized that Jesus is God, that he or she needs to repent, and that he or she is a beloved child of God—the person who truly encounters Christ realizes that he or she needs to follow Christ as a true missionary disciple.

Bishop Cozzens concluded this portion of his address with several famous conversion stories from the Gospels that showed those steps in action in real persons' (many of whom we know as saints) lives. Hopefully, through prayer and the Holy Spirit, the National Eucharistic Revival (and especially this Year of Parish Revival) will have a similar effect on our lives and on many of those whose lives our lives touch.

Please see the notices on Page 2 about our 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Masses on Tuesday, August 15, the Solemnity of the Assumption, a Holy Day of Obligation, and our observance – before and after our 5:30 p.m. Vigil Mass on Saturday, August 19, of the 144th Anniversary of Our Lady's Apparition at Knock, Ireland.

Concerning the Revival, please see the notice below about our Eucharistic Holy Hour in the Church at 1 p.m. on Sunday, August 20.

Finally, please see the item on Page 2, prepared by our wonderful former resident priest, Fr. Charles Keeney, in which Fr. Charlie advises that he will be returning to Holy Name to conduct a summer Mission Appeal at all our Masses on the August 26/27 weekend. ✞

FORMED: HNJ'S PICK OF THE WEEK

The Bible and the Virgin Mary
Episode 11: The Assumption

Based on the book "Hail, Holy Queen" by Dr. Scott Hahn, and part of a series on FORMED, this episode is packed with all kinds of great material.

It examines the dogma of the Assumption of Mary, as well as the many facets of the identity of the woman in the Apostle John's vision in Revelation 12. It also explores how John's vision in Revelation is the dramatic fulfillment of the promise God made back in the Garden of Eden: the "first gospel."

Looking More Closely at the Word

Being Human is to Doubt

by Tracy Earl Welliver

Readings: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a; Rom. 9:1-5; Matt 14:22-23

Humans doubt. It's what we do. We doubt ourselves and we doubt others.

Before any of us say anything about Peter's doubting the words of Jesus that told him he could get out of his boat and walk on water, we need to get real with ourselves: How would I respond in the same situation? I remember when I was child taking swimming lessons. One day I simply tightened up my muscles and sank. The lifeguard pulled me up and asked what happened. I said I did not know. The truth is that I was sinking under the weight of my own doubt. I did not believe I could do what clearly, I was told I could. That was only in five feet of water in a pool! Now that I'm older, I can look back and laugh. But an adult, the swimming pool is life, and I would be lying if I said that there are no longer times I find myself sinking due to new doubts.

Much of our doubt comes about because of a lack of trust in God. We place our trust in material things, wealth, or imperfect people instead of the One who is worthy of our trust 100 percent of the time. Our stewardship is often hampered by our doubt that God will provide all that we need. If I give more, I may not have enough to survive! When we place all our trust in God, not only do we find that we have been given all we need – our doubt that cause us to sink in the pool of life fades away. We don't suddenly become perfect in our trust, and there will be times when we find ourselves with concerns again. However, it is in those moments we find that He is still there, speaking the words we need to hear: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."
