A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Congratulations to Holy Name's CYO Pee Wee Division Girls Basketball Team! On February 11, these 4th and 5th graders won the Divisional Semi-Final game by defeating the team from St. Margaret's Parish, 25-17. This victory made Holy Name the top team on the Brooklyn side of the Diocese. Holy Name fell to St. Margaret's (25-17) in the Diocesan Championship Game on February 28, but it was still a great season for our young players - "The Stingers" (see photo below). In addition to congratulating the team members and their families, I want to thank their coaches, Chris and Jackie Cottingham and Noreen Alvarez, for all their time and hard work. One additional interesting note: both games were played in the gym at Msgr. McClancy Catholic High School, which was recently renamed the Coach Donald Kent gymnasium. Coach Don Kent is a long-time Holy Name parishioner who became McClancy's winningest basketball coach during his 42 years coaching there.

Lent and the National Eucharistic Revival are good reasons to remind you that we are happy to visit the homebound with the sacraments of the Eucharist, Reconciliation (Confession) and Anointing of the Sick. Please call the Rectory office so we can set a good time. Of course, we are always available for emergency home or hospital visits.

As was mentioned at last weekend's Masses, the Diocese is urging that pledges to the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal be made as part of Lenten Almsgiving. Many of us have received pledge envelopes in the mail. Making a pledge during Lent would be a tremendous help to the overall success of the Appeal which, as we know, provides critical assistance to Diocesan programs and to HNJ Parish. Pledges made during Lent can be paid over several months. Thank you for your generosity.

This Sunday, March 3, is the first Sunday of the Month. We'll have "Hospitality Sunday" in Shepherds Hall after the 10:30 and 12 Noon Masses. Please join us for light refreshments and fellowship. There will be an activity for the younger children at approximately 11:45).

Please see the flyer on Page 6 about HNJ's Social Committee's St. Patrick & St. Joseph Party in Shepherds Hall at 7 p.m. next Saturday, March 9. Tickets will be $50 per person and will include music, food, wine, beer, and soda. Call the Rectory Office by Monday, March 4 for reservations.

Also: Please see the information on Page 5 in this bulletin about the Brooklyn St. Patrick's Parade on Sunday, March 17. The Parade Mass will be in Holy Name Church at 10:30 a.m. with Bishop Witold Mroziewski presiding.

Finally—and most importantly—please continue to make good use of the opportunities during Lent for Confession, Mass, Stations of the Cross, and Adoration. Pray for me and I will pray for you that this hoy season will draw us all closer to the Lord. ✞

THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

ST. KATHERINE DREXEL

March 3 — Extend the circle of love: Born into a wealthy Philadelphia family, Saint Katharine Drexel (1858-1955) eventually spent her large inheritance in founding a religious order, the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, and establishing schools and missions for Native Americans and African Americans, including Xavier University in New Orleans, the only predominantly black Catholic institution of higher learning in the United States. The sisters continue Mother Drexel's work today through prayer, counseling, education, health care, social work, and other works of mercy, especially in connection with the poor and oppressed and among Native American, African American, and Haitian peoples. Ahead of her time, Mother Drexel had a special concern for excluded people. Is there someone like that you can reach out to today?

ST. CASIMIR

March 4 — Grace under pressure: Saint Casimir seemed destined for riches and power, but this patron saint of Poland, called the Peacemaker, took a different path. Born in 1458 to the king and queen of Poland, he was a devout, ascetic child. At age 14 his father had him lead an army to install himself as king of Hungary, but with an overpowering enemy and troops beginning to desert, Casimir instead returned home. His furious father exiled him, but Casimir would never again take up arms. Rejecting violence when those around you embrace it can take great inner strength. Cultivate an inner compass that can pursue peace despite pressure.

Lord, you have the words of everlasting Life.

Looking More Closely at the Word

THE MERCIFUL ANGER OF JESUS

by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Watch your fellow churchgoers today as the priest or deacon reads the story of Jesus raising hell (or perhaps he's raising heaven?) in the temple square. Dollars to donuts, they'll be squirming.

As Catholics, we have become very uncomfortable with Angry Jesus. He makes us cringe in the same way that the Old Testament God does when He calls Himself "jealous" and talks about punishment. That level of intensity makes us recoil. If it were present in a human relationship, it would be toxic and abusive, because in humanity, fierceness and love rarely coexist in a healthy way.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First:
Exodus 20:1-17

Second:
1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Gospel:
John 2:13-25

But what a tragedy it would be for us to mistake our relationship with God for our relationship with our spouse, our best friend, or even our human father. Because we cannot see clearly, we would mistake His zeal for anger and His law for diktat.

The strong and sure movement of a wave against a rocky cliff will, over time, erode its surface, just as an overabundance of raindrops will flood a city. We do not call the water callous and cruel. We still luxuriate in its coolness and refreshment. Its destructive powers don't negate the life-giving properties of water. We do not demand that water apologize to us for being strong.

Fierce, uncompromising — but also, soft and merciful. How can God — and God's law — be both, at the same time? How can Christ cast a whip at someone's foot, overturn a table and scatter coins? How can the law of God be perfect, as the Psalm says, and refresh the soul — while demanding so much of it?

All I can say is, thank God for Angry Jesus. We need his fierceness and thank God it does not wane because it confuses us. Thank God his mercy does not decrease because we doubt it. © LPi
