Intramural Basketball – is co-ed for ages 6 &7 years old. Players will meet once a week on Saturday mornings in the Bishop Ford/K280 school gym. Each child will be assigned to a team. All players will participate together in skill-building drills followed by a team game. This beginner-level program will teach players basic basketball skills to enhance their understanding of the game while giving them the full experience of playing the sport. It is held from November until mid-January.
