URGENT REQUEST FROM BISHOP BRENNAN

Parish Volunteers Must Complete Virtus On-Line Requirements NOW

Bishop Robert Brennan has directed all pastors to make an urgent request to all Parish Volunteers who have on-line Virtus Safe Environment (Child Protection) Accounts: Volunteers must check their accounts at www.Virtus.org immediately and promptly complete any open requirements. All open requirements are clearly listed on each volunteer's Virtus home page. Volunteers should especially check the for the new "Yearly Training Module", and be sure to review "electronically sign" the new Code of Conduct.

HNJ Parish's Safe Environment Coordinator, Kathryn Sisto, is available days, evenings, and weekends, to address questions or technology issues regarding this topic. She can be contacted via email at hnjreligioused@gmail.com or by telephone at (718) 768-7629; Option 6. Please note: Mrs. Sisto's office phone will automatically transfer to her cell phone.

The protection of our youth is the principal purpose of the Safe Environment Requirements. Our Diocese is being closely monitored to comply with the requirements of its agreement with the NY State Office of the Attorney General.

Bishop Brennan and all pastors greatly appreciate everything our volunteers do for our youth.

A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

On Pentecost Sunday (last weekend), I had the privilege of administering the Sacrament of Confirmation to six people from our Parish OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults)Program. Congratulations to them and to their loved ones — and many, many thanks to their instructors, Maryellen Keogh and Ana Acosta. Please remember that the Church welcomes anyone who did not receive the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, First Holy Communion and Confirmation) as a child to receive those sacraments later in life. Please contact the Rectory for further information.

Congratulations, also, to the 8th Grade students from our aligned St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Academy who graduated on Friday, June 13; and to their families, teachers, and school administrators.

This Sunday, June 15, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The mystery of the Holy Trinity (in the one true God, there are three distinct persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit) is impossible for us to understand fully. However, love is at the core of that mystery: the mutual love that the Father has for the Son and that the Son has for the Father generates a distinct third divine person, the Holy Spirit. God generously extends that divine love to us. In baptism, we were given a share in the life of God, which is a life of love. The expectation is that we will accept that gift by living up to the two great commandments of love of God and love of neighbor. Trinity Sunday is an opportunity for each of us to consider how well we are doing in living up to that expectation.

This coming Thursday, June 19, is the "still new" Juneteenth Federal Holiday. The Rectory office will be closed for the Holiday.

Next Sunday, June 22, is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). Here at Holy Name, we will have brief Eucharistic processions at our weekend Masses. Weather-permitting, part of the procession at our 10:30 a.m. Mass will take place outdoors.

Next Sunday, we will also celebrate the long career of Louise Oconnor and thank her for her many decades of service to Holy Name Parish. Louise is retiring at the end of this month. I hope you can join us for a Mass of Thanksgiving at 10:30 a.m. next Sunday and for the reception that will follow in Shepherds Hall. Everyone is welcome. To help us with ordering food, we ask that you contact the Rectory Office by this Tuesday, June 17, if you plan to attend the reception. ✞ to the people from our Parish OCIA Program who were Confirmed in Holy Name Church on Pentecost Sunday, June 8:

Saira Joan Camarillo

Christine Anne Ducan

Priscilla Philomena Flores

Xihara Mary Galon

Leisel Clare Kober

Jesus Michael Ruiz Rodriquez

The OCIA program prepares adults and High School students to receive the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

Religious instruction will be available this Fall for adults who wish to be baptized Catholic, as well as those who are already members of the Catholic Church but were never able to receive the fullness of the sacraments (Communion and / or Confirmation.)

Please Contact the Rectory at (718) 768-3071 to learn more about this program.
