A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Fr. Alexis Rodgriguez-Vargas from the Catholic University of Costa Rica will make the Summer Mission Appeal at all Masses this weekend. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

We have been asked to announce that the Diocese of Brooklyn will host a Jubilee Year Pilgrimage to Rome from September 1-8, 2025. The itinerary includes tours and Jubilee Year activities throughout the week and attendance at the Canonization Mass of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati and Blessed Carlo Acutis on September 7. The deadline for registration and full payment is Wednesday, July 30. Please see the flyers on the tables in the vestibule, and on our Parish web site, for details.

Please see the item at right for details about Fr. John Cush's Theology & Film Summer Series in the Rectory basement at 7 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, July 14 and 15. The evenings will include viewing and discussion of episodes from The Twilight Zone and the original Star Trek TV series.

Reminder: Effective July 1, 2025, Diocesan policy changed so that the requested offering for an Announced Mass has increased to $20. (There is never a charge for a Mass; this is a suggested offering.) When you ask for an Annouced Mass, please advise us if the requested offering presents any problems. ✞

Turn to the Lord in your need,
and you will live. ~ Psalm 69

Looking More Closely at the Word

What Jesus Doesn't Say

"If Jesus wanted us to (fill in the blank), he would have said so."

We hear this argument applied to every controversial topic under the sun — and even some not-so-controversial topics, too. Whenever someone is trying to make a case for a decision they have already made, they call in Jesus' scriptural silence on the matter as their expert, unimpeachable witness.

Sunday's Readings:

Deuteronomy 30:10-14
Colossians 1:15-20
Luke 10:25-37

And sure, there's much Jesus doesn't talk about in the Gospels. But by this logic, we would have to assume that Jesus doesn't care, for instance, if we drive well over the speed limit (he doesn't discuss cars and highways in the Bible) or what we do online (he never mentions the Internet or websites at all!), when we know that certainly is just not the case.

Like the scholar of the Jewish law who challenges Jesus to define who exactly his "neighbor" is, we can argue semantics all we want. But if we rest in prayer and look deep into our hearts, we know what path we need to take, and it's usually not the easy one.

I find that I do this plenty in ways that are far more subtle. I lament that the situation facing me is not sufficiently "black and white." I become frustrated by the shades of moral grey and toss up my hands, claiming I don't know what the right answer is, insisting that I can't be blamed for the ramifications of whatever decision I make.

What I need to be doing in these situations is asking God for His guidance, even if it makes me nervous. I need to be like the scholar. He was brave enough to ask, even though I think he knew he wouldn't particularly like the answer. Let's strive for that same courage. ~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
