A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

Fr. Alex Rodriguez-Vargas thanks everyone at Holy Name of Jesus Parish for their generous response to the Summer Mission Appeal he made at our Masses last weekend in behalf of the Catholic University of Costa Rica.

Fr. John Cush's two-session Theology & Film Series Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week was a great success. Particularly impressive was the fact that 25 dedicated attendees braved thunderstorms—both coming and going home!—in order to be there Monday evening.

Concerning the 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal: There is a chart at right showing that we have pledges slightly exceeding our 2025 Diocesan goal. However, we are still very far behind where we have been in past years in the amount of "over-goal" dollars that come back to Holy Name of Jesus Parish. Those over goal dollars play a very important role in helping pay for our many expensive deferred-maintenance projects, like our new sidewalks and parking lot asphalt. The chart also indicates that many of our parishioners and friends of HNJ have not yet made a pledge for 2025. Pledges can be paid as a lump sum, or by installment, and no amount is too small. Every pledge is a great help. If you can, please make yours as soon as possible. As always, thank you for your generosity.

As I've mentioned previously, Diocesan policy changed as of July 1, 2025 so that the requested offering for an Announced Mass is now $20. (There is never a charge for a Mass; this is a suggested offering.) When you ask for an Announced Mass, please advise us if the requested offering presents any problems. ✞

Looking More Closely at the Word

Be Ready for God to "Stop By"

In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren't.

Sunday's Readings:

Genesis 18:1-10a;
Colossians 1:24-28
Luke 10:38-42

For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called "stopping by." They would be passing by a friend's house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. "I was just in the neighborhood," they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn't an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready.

"Crazy," you might exclaim. "People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?" Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready.

Today's readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They're about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things.

Most of all, though, they're about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready.
