A NOTE FROM FR. LARRY

I will be away from the parish from Monday, July 28 through Sunday, August 3. Many thanks to Fr. Joseph and Fr. Emmanuel who will be covering for me. I will spend a few days at St. Edmund's Retreat Center near Mystic, CT and then visit friends in Marblehead, MA. Both destinations are on the water. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate.

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage 2025

The three-year National Eucharistic Revival concluded on Corpus Christi Sunday, June 2025. Its last formal devotion was a six-week Eucharistic Pilgrimage that began in Indianapolis in May and ended with a Solemn Mass in Los Angeles on June 22. The pilgrimage passed through urban and rural areas in ten Mid and South Western states before arriving in LA. The Blessed Sacrament was transported by van, by foot, and even—at one point in Peoria, IL—by helicopter. Tens of thousands joined in Masses and Adoration along the way. The conclusion of the Eucharistic Revival in June overlapped with the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope which continues into December.

Please consider the following comments by Jason Shanks, President of the National Eucharistic Congress, as he reflected on the conclusion of the Revival:

"Revival is not a one-time event. If it is real, it does not end with a Congress, a pilgrimage, or even a powerful testimony. Revival continues when it moves from moments of encounter into lasting patterns of discipleship. It endures when parishes become places of Eucharistic amazement, when families return to the rhythm of Sunday Mass, and when the Church's missionary impulse flows from the altar into the streets. This Eucharistic revival can and must be ongoing. Every Mass is a moment of renewal. Every hour of Eucharistic adoration is an invitation to be transformed. Every act of charity rooted in the Eucharist carries the revival forward.

This work of revival continues—not because of a national structure or an official timeline—but because Jesus in the Eucharist is still calling, still healing, still sending. And as long as hearts are responding, the revival lives on."

Ask and You Shall Receive

It's easy to look at today's Gospel reading and come away with a view of God as disinterested and irritated, reluctant to give us what we need unless we bang down his door, hound him to the furthest reaches of heaven, wrench him from his reverie and force him to answer just so we'll finally go away.

Sunday's Readings:
Genesis 18:20-32
Colossians 2:12-14
Luke 11:1-13

Well, that's not what Jesus means by the parable of the friend at midnight — but it's also not surprising that we would think that it is. The whole point of this Gospel is that communication between God and man has been broken. It's not as easy as it once was, as it should be, as it could be.

In this parable, there exists many barriers between the supplicant and his friend. The time of day is not ideal. The door is locked. Their dispositions are opposite — one is in the middle of a REM cycle and the other is deeply agitated. They appear to be two people who are not primed to communicate well. Everything is working against them.

The same could well be said of God and the human race. Here we are in a fallen world, surrounded by sin and pain and sickness and death to the extent that it infiltrates not just our bodies but our souls, our minds, our attitudes.

We are the friend caught unprepared in the dead of night. We don't always know how to talk to God (That door is thick! Will he hear us if we knock?). We don't always know if we should (It's all my fault that I ran out of loaves, after all). We don't even know if we want to (It's nighttime! He might be angry!). Everything is working against us.

It doesn't matter, Jesus tells us. Whatever is interrupting communication between your heart and the One who crafted it, the One who desires its full and irrevocable attention, it can be overcome. There is no door thick enough, no night dark enough, no sleep strong enough. So knock. ~ Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman ©LPi
